Will Rogers Remarks:

PITTSBURGH, May 29.—(To the Editor of The Times: I will always thank my stars that I know Lady Astor; she is the quickest mind I ever saw. I wish we had kept her in this country. Get her latest speech. A woman hailed out: "My children are as good as yours." Lady Astor came back at her "Which one of mine? I have no two that are alike. One wouldn't have anything if you turned him loose in the Bank of England, and another one would be rich if you turned him loose in Timbuctoo; now if a husband and wife can't raise 'em alike, how is the Labor government going to make all children equal?" I hope England will make her Ambassador over to us here.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

HEAT WAVE KILLS FOUR

New York Bakes
Beneath Sun

High Temperature Blamed for Woman's Leap to Suicidal Death

Weather Forecaster Offers
No Relief in Sight for Stifling Humidity

NEW YORK, May 29. (Exclusive) Sticky, depressing waves of heat baking the metropolitan area killed three workmen, drove a heat-stricken woman to suicide and sent dozens of sufferers to hospitals today.

A cooling breeze from the sea eased conditions a little at twilight, and a brief, light shower fell in some sections in the early evening. But Weather Forecaster James Scarr would not give the sweltering city any hope for tomorrow. The heat will continue, he said, although clouds and moderate west winds may temper the torrid rays to the burned populace.

High temperature for the day today was 82 deg. at 5 p.m. Although the sweltering heat grew more intense during the afternoon, the humidity—92 at 8 a.m.—fell to between 85 and 70 later in the day.

Thought to have been driven insane by the stifling atmosphere in her bakes apartment, Mrs. Anna Phelps, 54 years of age, leaped from the third story in her home. She was killed instantly.

Teague Boyer, 33, longshoreman, collapsed while at work and died later in a hospital. A second longshoreman, John Berger, died from the heat at a Hoboken dock. Frank Giuliano collapsed and he died soon after being taken to a hospital.

CHICAGO SUFFERS
HOTTEST DAY OF YEAR
CHICAGO, May 29. (Exclusive)—The hottest day of 1929 was experienced by Chicagoans today and the mercury thermometer reached the 90-deg. mark.

Only once before in the history of the Weather Bureau has there been such a prolonged heat wave. The mercury thermometer reached the 90-deg. mark on Monday and Tuesday. In May, 1921, there was a five-day period when the temperature exceeded 90 deg. each day.

Health department officials were busy condemning foodstuffs in markets which spoiled because of the heat. Two tons of foodstuffs were condemned on wholesale markets, they reported.

WINDS FORCE POSTPONING of Second Take-off Set for
This Morning

OLD ORCHARD (Me.) May 29.—(P)—Reports of cloudy weather and head winds over the Atlantic tonight caused the definite postponement of the proposed takeoffs of two European-bound planes.

The two monoplanes, which were prevented by mishaps from getting away today when reports were favorable, rested on the sand, repaired and ready for flight.

In the face of this report, we can't take off," Lewis A. Yancy, navigator of the Green Flash, Rome-bound, said after receiving the report from Dr. James W. Kimball of the Weather Bureau in New York.

Armeno Loti, sponsor and copilot of the Yellow Bird, which will head for the French capital, also stated he would not attempt the flight.

Both planes tried to get away today almost at the same time. The Green Flash failed when one wheel sank in soft sand, cracking three spokes and causing a ground loop. The Yellow Bird took off but returned when a leak developed in a fuel tank.

REAPPORTIONMENT VOTED IN SENATE BY 57 TO 26

Long-Delayed Measure Giving This and Other States Additional Representation Approved

WASHINGTON, May 29. (Exclusive)—After more than eight years delay, the Senate finally performed its constitutional duty today and passed a reapportionment measure giving California and other growing States the increased Congressional representation to which they are entitled on the basis of present population figures.

The combination reapportionment and census bill passed by a vote of 57 to 26. It now goes to the House where it will be approved early next week, probably on Tuesday.

Under the legislation California will gain six and possibly seven members in the House of Representatives, necessitating a redistricting on the part of the California Legislature. If this redistricting takes place according to density of population at least four and possibly five of the new Congressional seats will go to Los Angeles county and Southern California, as it is in the southern end of the State that the greatest growth in population has taken place since the last apportioning of the lower branch of Congress following the census of 1910.

VOTE DUE TUESDAY
House leaders said today they plan to have the bill taken up Monday under a special rule, and look for a final vote next day. There is no doubt that the House, which since the 1920 census has passed two reapportionment bills only to have them blocked in the Senate, will approve the legislation, but a fight is brewing over the Senate amendment placing all 1920 census enumerators under civil service. This loss of patronage which it is doubted the Senate really intended does not look good to the Republican members of the lower branch, and indications are the amendment, sponsored by a Tammany Democrat, Senator Wagner of New York, will be knocked out before the measure is passed by the House and sent to conference.

The bill provides for a shuffling of House seats on the basis of the 1920 census, meaning that the additional California representation will become effective when the next census comes in March 4, 1931. It also carries the authorization for the forthcoming enumeration of population, setting up the machinery and empowering the executive branch of the government to spend the estimated $40,000,000 that will be needed to care for the 100,000 temporary workers in the census count. California alone is figured, will have upward of 300,000 enumerators ranging the way from an official in charge of the census in this State, through supervisors in more than twenty districts, down to the actual enumerators.

CALIFORNIA LEADS
States that will gain House seats under 1920 census estimates are: California, 6; Michigan, 4; Ohio, 3; New Jersey, 2; Texas, 2; Connecticut, Arizona, Florida, North Carolina, Oklahoma and Washington one each.

States that stand to lose seats: Missouri, 3; Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky and Mississippi two each; Alabama, Kansas, Louisiana, Maine, Massachusetts, Nebraska, New York, North Dakota, Pennsylvania, Vermont and Virginia, one each.

Before passing the bill today the Senate voted down another flock of amendments, and adopted one, offered by Senator Pittman, Democrat of Nevada, requiring the President to inform the Congress some time after the 1920 census as to how reapportionment would be planned out under the mathematical method of "equal proportions" instead of "major fractions" which is the system provided in the bill. Equal proportions, although understood by nobody in Congress, has many friends there, mostly among those who have attempted to hamper passage of reapportionment legislation, and the Pittman amendment still their cries somewhat while at the same time providing for a later table of definite figures which even members of Congress can understand. It has been the contention of some senators that the system of "major fractions" method deals more fairly with the smaller States.

BILL AIDS MITCHELL
IN LAND GRANT QUIZ

WASHINGTON, May 29. (P)—A bill to enable Atty.-Gen. Mitchell to institute legal proceedings for a final demonstration of the rights of the government and the Northern Pacific Railroad Company as to land grants was passed today by the Senate and sent to the House.

DRY EMBASSIES FORECAST
Diplomats Considering Cutting Liquor Supplies to Needs of Staff Members Only

WASHINGTON, May 29. (Exclusive)—The widespread publicity which has attended every new development of the diplomatic liquor problem during the last few months may result in the inauguration of dry dinners at certain of the capital's embassies and legations, it was disclosed here today.

It is learned that more than one diplomat is seriously considering cutting down liquor importations to the needs of members of his staff for their own use. While liquors will be served at small functions, the practice of serving cocktails, rare wines and other enticing alcoholic beverages to dry American officials at large functions may be stopped.

Boulder Dam Conference Seeks Figures on Water

Delegates Visit White House and Meet Hoover

WASHINGTON, May 29. (Exclusive)—The "lower basin" Boulder Dam conference got down to something approaching definite business today with submission of a series of questions to the Interior Department regarding the flow of the Colorado River at various points throughout its course from the proposed dam to the Mexican boundary.

Nineteen questions were presented by Arizona and three by California. All were highly technical, and along with them went a request that the Interior Department interpret the conflicting reports of its engineers, and give its best opinion as to which of all the estimates that have been made by the department's experts, it regards as most sound.

ANSWERS BY FRIDAY
All this was aimed at getting, finally, some definite and accurate figures on river flow which could be agreed upon by the representatives of California and Arizona and be used as the basis for a possible compromise on the water division between the two States.

The Interior Department, through P. W. Dent, assistant reclamation commissioner, promised to have as many answers as possible ready by Friday, and the next meeting of the conference was set for 10 a.m. that day.

The river commissioners of California, Arizona and the third lower basin State, Nevada, were taken to the White House today by Secretary of the Interior Wilbur and Col. William J. Donovan, government representative and presiding officer of the conference to pay their respects to President Hoover. Introductions were made by Judge William B. Matthews of Los Angeles, one of the California commissioners.

HOOVER HOPEFUL
President Hoover expressed a "personal interest" in the Boulder Dam project, and voiced the hope that California and Arizona will be able to compose their differences in the near future, so that construction work on the development may go forward after June 31, when the Spring-Johnson Act becomes effective under the present six-State compact, if Arizona chooses to remain out of the compact.

There was still, however, no indication that the Washington conference will bring about an agreement. On the other hand there were additional reasons for believing the meeting will amount only to a sham battle and that Col. Donovan, after a few more sessions, will be forced to call an adjournment to a later date and another place. Some of the conferees expressed the opinion, privately, that the present meeting will last until California and Arizona have exhausted all their "questions" to the Interior Department, and then break up.

WOULD PREVENT CLASH
The diplomatic Col. Donovan is determined, if possible, to prevent an open clash at this time, and he will count the Washington conference profitable if it contributes even in a small way toward getting the California and Arizona commissioners better acquainted, less suspicious of each other, and in more of a mutual good humor toward their respective viewpoints. The theory he is working on seems presumptuous, in view of the long experience the representatives of the two States have had in negotiating across the Boulder Dam border.

The request that the Interior Department come back with an interpretation of whatever answers it gives on the water questions, was made at the suggestion of Commissioner Malone of Nevada. Malone pointed out that engineers of the department have differed widely in their estimates of the river flow at important points, and declared if the department itself is not prepared to pass judgment on the conflicting reports it is obviously impossible for the lower Colorado basin States to do so.

CALL FOR FIGURES
Speaking for the department, Assistant Commissioner Dent said that government telegraph facilities will be used to their fullest extent to get the desired information from the Denver office, closest to Boulder Dam and that most of the queries could be answered at the Friday meeting.

W. F. Whitsett, chairman of the Los Angeles Metropolitan Water District, arrived today to join the other Californians at the Boulder Dam conference.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29. (Exclusive)—Supervisor Marks was delegated today to go to Los Angeles to study the workings of the Municipal Court system there as part of a plan of obtaining information for the prospective adoption of the system in this city. The supervisor is chairman of the Judiciary Committee which began a study of the matter today under authorization of the entire board by resolution recently.

The San Francisco Bar Association has endorsed the plan, as have virtually all of the judges in city and county.

The robbers escaped with the money after tying up Johnson and Curtis Trust, driver of the taxi, in an abandoned cottage.

SPRINGFIELD (ILL.) May 29. (AP)—The Legislature today passed the "call money bill" and sent it to the Governor.

The bill amends the Usury Act to allow interest in excess of 7 per cent. It was introduced at the request of Chicago financiers who argued that "loose money" in Chicago is being sent to New York, where it commands a higher rate of interest.

CHAIN-STORE

Kress Admits Daughter Married to Clerk But He Still Doesn't Like It

NEW YORK, May 29. (Exclusive)
The elopement of demure Sylvia Kress, 18 years of age, with a $30-a-week broker's clerk, may be a romance to the public, but even if it is Papa Kress, multimillionaire chain-store magnate, still does not like it.

Although he announced his daughter's wedding with good grace, the dignified Bush H. Kress today with some exasperation characterized it as a "hare-brained stunt" which he was not at all interested in discussing.

"I certainly have not consented to my daughter's living in a one-room apartment on $30 a week," he said. "There are no future plans to talk about."

At the palatial Kress apartment it was declared that Sylvia, accompanied by her chaplain, had returned to the Ochsling School for Girls, where she is a senior. She is an only child. Mrs. Kress has been dead for many years.

The bridegroom who ran away with the five-and-ten heiress to Bel-air, Md., two weeks ago, today hid behind his ledger at the office of De Coppel & Doremus, where he is one of an army of file clerks, and refused to be interviewed. He is Charles Lee Abby, Jr., 22, son of a Chicago dry goods salesman, and is reported to have spurned financial aid from his father-in-law.

H. S. Cummings to Appear for Tunney in Suit

STANFORD (Cal.) May 29. (AP)—Homer S. Cummings, former chairman of the Democratic National Committee, announced today that he has been engaged to appear in Superior Court at Bridgeport on behalf of James (Gene) Tunney, retired heavyweight champion, in the $500,000 breach of promise suit brought against him by Mrs. Katharine King Foxworthy of New York.

The suit will be contested to the limit, Mr. Cummings said. He added that his firm is preparing an answer to the charges of infidelity that Tunney proposed to her and was accepted and then "married another person"—the former Polly Lauder. Cummings said this answer is not required to be filed until June 24, or twenty days after the order to Tunney to appear is made returnable.

Tunney's Wife Improves, Says
German Doctor

BREKIN, May 29. (AP)—Mrs. Gene Tunney is progressing normally and her condition is excellent, Prof. Arthur W. Meyer, German specialist, told the Associated Press on his arrival from the island of Brioni today.

When asked why, then, he had rushed to Brioni last week in response to a hurry call, Dr. Meyer replied:

"Because Tunney was frightened." He explained that the natural infiltration in the tissues in such a severe case of appendicitis was bound to continue and to cause some pain even after an operation, and that the local physician, when called in, had a serious face. Thereupon, the former heavyweight champion became worried and immediately wired for Dr. Meyer.

Muscle Shoals Plan Reported

WASHINGTON, May 29. (AP)—The Morris resolution to provide for government operation of the Muscle Shoals property in Alabama was reported favorably to the Senate today by its Agriculture Committee.

The report was made by the unanimous vote of the thirteen members present.

Senator Norris, Republican, Nebraska, author of the resolution, which is identical to that given a last year, announced, however, he is doubtful if the Senate can act before the summer recess.

WOMEN'S CLUBS ALTER FINANCES
Federation Adopts Plan for $2,000,000 Foundation

Former Methods Criticized by Several Speakers

National Funds to be Used for Four Chief Aims

SWAMPSCOTT (Mass.) May 29. (Exclusive)—The General Federation of Women's Clubs adopted the $2,000,000 foundation plan of its trustees at the biennial council meeting today, hoping that this will meet all its future financial needs. An undercurrent of criticism directed at former financial arrangements was apparent in the discussion, several remarks being aimed at the fact that the federation's survey of home equipment was financed partly through public utility funds.

Mrs. C. M. Barre of the Women's Club of Milwaukee was the most outspoken of all, declaring that the women give less toward the support of their federation than they give to the Y. W. C. A.

"We are no better than a mother who gives birth to a child and then abandons it for the community to support, if we leave the support of our federation to public utility corporations and magazines," she said.

The federation has been on the road to slavery and the abandonment of freedom of expression. In view of the public criticism directed at the federation's financial policy it is time we made a right about face."

BACKED BY OTHERS
Vigorous applause greeted this speech and others who followed her sentiments, though less forcibly.

Mrs. John F. Stippel, president of the federation, later in the day defended the organization against the insinuations in this speech.

"We all know perfectly well that everything the federation has done in the past or will do in the future has been and will be on the highest grounds. At no time has it ever accepted anything that has a tinge on it or could control our policy in any way," she said.

Mrs. Palmer Jernan of Raleigh, N. C., seconded Mrs. Barre with the assertion that the federation is facing one of the crises of its history and that its future well being depends on putting aside notions of a "self-respecting basis." Nor does she think that the sum of $2,000,000 is too large for the women to raise, inasmuch as the Young Women's Christian Association is out for $10,000,000.

Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, chairman of the board of trustees of the federation, in presenting her plan, told the women that their husbands spent $90 a year in support of Rotary clubs in contrast to the 10 cents which has been the club women's contribution to the budget of the general federation.

FOUR CHIEF PROJECTS
The $2,000,000 which it is proposed to raise is to be divided between the national body and the States on a fifty-fifty basis. The national funds are to be used for four chief projects: support of the Federation News, the monthly publication of the national organization, the support of headquarters in Washington, extension of the publications of the departments so that women throughout the country may keep more closely in touch with their leaders and payment of the expenses of the leaders and committee chairmen that they may visit, remove State more frequently and thus mitigate the evils of centralization of power.

The methods of raising the $2,000,000 are to be left to the women of the States, each of which will be allotted a quota based on the estimated membership and allowing $2.50 a member. Mrs. Burdette explained that this does not mean that each woman is to be assessed $2.50 to be paid out of her own pocket.

W. W. Green of Sacramento, Cal., in a two-minute address on the outstanding achievement of the California Federation of Women's Clubs, lauded the work of the organization in pushing a State park bond issue for California and the donation of $45,000 toward acquisition of a giant redwood grove.

Objections Filed in Beer Scandal

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29. (Exclusive)—Demurrers to indictments in the Alameda county beer-graft scandal were filed today by five San Francisco attorneys, representing the bulk of the fifty defendants. The demurrers, accompanied by petitions for bills of particulars, charge the indictments fail to specify the liquor involved was for beverage purposes, and that they are insufficient in other ways.

Arguments will be heard before three Federal judges, acting separately, Friday, Saturday and Monday. The first of the trials is scheduled for next Thursday.

Miners' Union Head Convicted

HERRIN (Ill.) May 28. (AP)—John Watts, president of the International Miners' Union, insurgent organization opposed to the United Mine Workers, was convicted today by a State Court of carrying a concealed weapon and fined $25 and costs. He appealed.

Watts was arrested here with five other persons when they attempted to hold a public meeting in the City Hall three weeks ago.

NORTH DAKOTA ASKS LOWER GRAIN RATES

WASHINGTON, May 29. (AP)—An argument in favor of lower rates on grain and grain products in North Dakota, Minnesota and Montana was made before the Interstate Commerce Commission today by S. H. Houck, special assistant attorney general of North Dakota, explaining that the State's three grain elevators have been joined together in argument because their interests are substantially the same.

He said conditions in that territory were such that lower freight rates should be put into effect.

Former L. A. Druggist Now Like New Man

"Although I am in the real estate business now, I am a graduate of the Chicago School of Pharmacy, and I think I know something about medicine. I have handled thousands of different preparations in the past, and I don't hesitate to say that in my opinion, there never has been a medicine put in a bottle, the equal of Sargon for the things that are claimed for it. Take my case for example. For six years I was off weight, run down, nervous and failing. I had very little appetite. I forced myself to eat a few light things, but even these would sour and ferment and cause all sorts of stomach misery. My whole nervous system seemed to be upset. I hardly knew what sound, restful sleep was. Just about all the strength and energy I ever had seemed to be leaving me. My kidneys were sluggish, and sharp pains across my back made me miserable. I was continually bilious and frequently suffered with sick headaches. My pep and vitality were just about gone, and I just had to force myself to go about my work. Medicines didn't do me any good, and I tried dieting. I couldn't see where this did any good whatever. "One day I read in the Los Angeles papers about the new Sargon formula. It hit me squarely between the eyes as both logic and good common sense. I had often wondered when some preparation would be made that would get away from old, worn-out theories. This seemed to be it, and I was satisfied it was the medicine for me. I went out and bought the treatment, and the change it made in my condition was nothing short of marvelous. Why, with the first few doses I started off eating again—regular man's size meals—and found that I didn't suffer the slightest trace of any kind of stomach trouble. My nervousness gradually disappeared and I enjoyed wonderful, refreshing sleep. Now, I get up in the mornings feeling like a different man from head to foot. Why, a man is just bound to get well and strong that eats and sleeps like I do now. My kidneys are normal, and the pains across my back are gone. I am full of new strength and energy and just in the very prime of health, that's all, and this wonderful new medicine Sargon is responsible for it. "Sargon Soft Mass Pills started my liver active, and ended my biliousness. They are mild but certain, and never nauseate or sicken in the least. This treatment simply made a clean sweep of all my troubles, and I can never praise it too highly."

The above remarkable statement was recently made by Dale McKelvey, of 425 S. Hope St., this city. Mr. McKelvey retired from the drug business to enter the real estate field and is widely known and highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends. In the few short months it has been on the market Sargon has established astounding records in many leading cities. In Kansas City alone wholesale and retail druggists have distributed more than 250,000 bottles of Sargon and Sargon Soft Mass Pills, or an average of a solid carload every month since its introduction there last June. Leading wholesale druggists are buying Sargon exclusively in carload lots and the demand continues to increase as its remarkable health-building powers become known. In Los Angeles hundreds of people are daily thronging the Owl drug store, 6th and Broadway, to learn the astonishing facts about this amazing new medicine. Here the special Sargon representative elicits case after case of Sargon's wonderful powers at work; personal instances of health renewed and happiness restored. Sargon's great reputation is based on actual results, not empty promises. Sargon may be obtained at the Owl drug store in Los Angeles and all other cities. There is a Sargon dealer in every town. WOMEN RELATE PERIL IN CHINA

They Flee Mission to Escape Attack by Reds
Make Way With Children to Zone Outside Danger
Native Friends Refuse to Offer Shelter

AMOY (China) May 20. (P)—Although still suffering from nervous shock, Mrs. C. H. Holleman and Mrs. Henry Poppen were able today to tell something of their thrilling experiences during the plundering of the Lungyenchow mission and their escape to Amoy in Chinese clothing.

Mrs. Holleman's husband, Dr. Holleman of Springfield, S. D., was kidnapped by the Chinese, who said they needed him to treat their wounded. The refugees declare that 2000 Communists soldiers attacked the missionary compound of the American Reformed Presbyterian Mission.

ESCAPE TO SCHOOL
"We had risen early and were finished with breakfast," Mrs. Poppen, wife of a missionary who escaped, said. "I was teaching my son, Kenneth, when rifle firing began near our house and enemy troops were soon sighted. We ran with the children to the girls' school. There was no time to collect personal effects. Mrs. Holleman with her children joined us at the school."

"This location soon became precarious as marauding troops were firing their rifles recklessly. We attempted to enter the homes of Chinese friends, but they refused, having no room for us and feeling that our presence might endanger the lives of the entire Chinese family. However, other Chinese friends saved us Chinese clothing and directed us to an empty house where we hid throughout the day. Consequently I do not know the detailed activities of the looting troops throughout the day."

"After dark we dressed in the Chinese clothes and crossed the river to the other side of the city where other Chinese friends received and assisted us, making arrangements for our departure to Amoy. These friends insisted that we go quickly, since to remain at Lungyenchow endangered both them and ourselves."

ESCAPE IN RAIN
"We ate such Chinese food as could be obtained along the way. The miserable stopping places were made worse by a heavy rain which poured on us in torrents. This made the road slippery and dangerous when traveling after dark. "Saturday night, May 23, cannot be fully described. It was so full of horrors, fears and hardships, near exhaustion and rainstorms. The rain was pouring, lightning flashed and the thunder echoed through the mountains. We were wet to the skin and the children were crying and tired, often wading knee deep through muddy water. How we did it, I don't know."

NATIONALISTS RAID SOVIET CONSULATES
TOKIO, May 20. (P)—Press dispatches from Harbin, Manchuria, today said Chinese authorities had raided the Soviet consulates at Tientsin and Miao-chow in addition to those at Harbin and Suifenho yesterday.

It was said it had been established reliably that the Communist government at Nanking had ordered the raids, hoping to uncover a definite connection of the Soviet government with Marshal Peng Yu-Hsiang, who is leading a revolt in Central China.

All regular consular officials have been released but thirty-five arrested Communist operatives are still being held. In Tokio the comment of the national press shows some alarm at the stiffened Chinese attitude in Manchuria.

FIFTY MISSIONARIES REPORTED IN PERIL
SHANGHAI, May 20. (P)—The Canadian Church mission representative at Kweichow, Honan, writing from Suchowan, Anhwei, under date of the 22nd inst., said fifty foreign missionaries are unable to evacuate the area likely to be affected by the impending Chinese civil war since Gen. Peng Yu-Hsiang had destroyed the Lungchal Railway. An overland trip out was being considered.

These missionaries, the letter stated, include twenty-five American and British at Kweichow and six at Chengchow. He said Peng's soldiers virtually wrecked Lungchal, destroying telephone and telegraph lines. They also tore up the railroad tracks.

The country is said to be full of Peng's soldiers who, however, are doing little fighting.

Dollar Starts for California After Parleys
WASHINGTON, May 20. (P)—Following conferences with members of the Shipping Board and other government officials R. Stanley Dollar, president of the Dollar Steamship Company, left for California today.

Dollar has been conferring with representatives of the Commerce, Postoffice and Navy departments regarding the proposed construction of six liners of approximately 25,000 tons displacement for use in his company's round-the-world service.

He attended a meeting today of the Shipping Board and after its conclusion said the prospects of obtaining a loan for the construction of the ships are "very bright."

MRS. OLDFIELD TO RETIRE

Widow of Arkansas Representative Plans to Quit Public Life After Present Term Expires

WASHINGTON, May 20. (P)—Mrs. Pearl Penden Oldfield, Representative for Arkansas, widow of William A. Oldfield, the former Democratic whip, today declared that, "under no circumstances" will she return to Congress after her present term expires.

She has found active public life so anodyne for her grief over the loss of her husband, she said, and although she will carry on for the remainder of her two-year term, which follows her election, then she will gladly retire to the sphere in which she believes woman belongs—her home.

"I came back to the office to look after things because no one was here to keep things going," she said, referring to her election to fill out her husband's term, "and I accepted the nomination believing I should serve only a few weeks before the special election I announced my old-fashioned belief about women and the home, and that belief I still hold."

Before her husband's death, she said, she considered adopting a child, but she has given up this plan and will devote herself after her retirement to her niece and nephew and to doing things "for children" whenever opportunity rises.

NECESSITY FOR SAFETY IN AIR CITED
Guggenheim Foundation Pilot Asserts It Is Chief Problem in Aviation

ST. LOUIS, May 20. (P)—Personal safety in flight has become the principal problem in aviation, in the opinion of Lieut. James Doolittle, noted pilot with the Guggenheim Foundation, New York City, which was given to the third national aeronautics meeting here today. He added: "Much has been done, but there remains much yet to be done."

More and better airports, airways studded with emergency landing fields, power-plant reliability and low landing speeds are among the essential items listed by Doolittle as lessening personal peril. He also would have the manufacturer construct the craft so that it "crashes well."

Predicting that the present commercial trend of aeronautics for consolidation will be accelerated in the future, with manufacturing and operating companies growing fewer and stronger, William S. Robertson of St. Louis, president of an airplane-manufacturing plant, cited need for experimentation as one of the controlling factors. His paper dealt with four phases of aviation—conception, exhibition, military and commercial—saying that only in very recent years has commercial production compared with military.

Huntington Park Youth Commits Suicide in East

NEW YORK, May 20. (P)—Norbert L. Gill, 22 years of age, a bookstore clerk, committed suicide by hanging himself from a rafter in his room here today. Police said he jumped from a dresser after attaching the noose to a ceiling beam, which was broken in the fall. A note found on the dresser asked that Mrs. Leo L. Gill of Huntington Park, Cal., be notified.

Prize Fireman Arrested for Starting 'Em
PEEKSKILL (N. Y.) May 20. (Exclusive)—If residents of Peekskill are all agog no one can blame them. Their prize fireman, John J. Manning, was indicted today for arson.

Being a five-alarm fireman in a one-alarm town, officials believe, is the cause of Manning's undoing. He hankered for chances to show his prowess. Blazes, however, for a time obstinately refused to occur.

So Manning fared forth with matches and kindling, according to the official charge, and attempted to create new business. Arrested Friday after a fire in a lumber yard, at which he was the first man on the job, he was quizzed concerning seventeen suspicious blazes that have occurred in Peekskill since last November. Finally he confessed, according to Dist. Atty. Coyne, that he had set fire to the lumber yard because he thought it would make the best blaze in Peekskill.

Afghan Envoy Slain by Rebels
CONSTANTINOPLE, May 20. (P)—Authoritative information has reached Ankara from Afghanistan stating that Afghan rebels captured and killed Ghuulam Djelani Bey, Afghan Ambassador to Turkey, who was recalled by former King Amanullah to aid in the fight against the rebels. The reports said Ghuulam was tortured to death.

Mob Invades Tennessee Jail to Lynch Negro

ALAMO (Tenn.) May 20. (P)—A mob of about 100 men early today entered the Crockett County Jail here, removed Jos. Boxley, 19-year-old negro accused of attacking the wife of a justice of the peace, and hanged him on a tree four miles from town.

Willebrandt Post Will be Filled Later

WASHINGTON, May 20. (P)—President Hoover probably will defer selection of a successor to Mrs. Willebrandt as assistant Attorney-General until about the time she leaves the government service June 15.

The general impression in administration circles seems to be that a man will be appointed to succeed her.

THREE DEAD IN SHOOTING

DOGGY CHICAGO SUBURB DECIDES TO PUT ON DOG

CHICAGO, May 29. (P)—Lafayette today signed the bill repealing the State's prohibition law. The bill, which was passed by a majority of nearly 150-0 in the Assembly a month ago, was vetoed by the Governor. The bill, which was passed by a majority of nearly 150-0 in the Assembly a month ago, was vetoed by the Governor.

bill, which leaves the entire enforcement of dry laws in Wisconsin to Federal agents, was followed by a statement that the Eighteenth Amendment provides that "The Congress and the several States shall have concurrent power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation."

WARNING ISSUED

The Governor believes "this imposes no obligation upon the States, but leaves it optional with them as to whether or not they will exercise their concurrent powers." Gov. Kohler warned that the Legislature's repeal of the prohibition law would be a "disgrace" to the State and that he would veto any such bill.

Gov. Kohler's signature of the bill, which leaves the entire enforcement of dry laws in Wisconsin to Federal agents, was followed by a statement that the Eighteenth Amendment provides that "The Congress and the several States shall have concurrent power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation."

WISCONSIN MOVE

WASHINGTON, May 29. (P)—Prohibition Commissioner Doran said today that repeal of the Wisconsin dry law will not affect the enforcement of the national prohibition law in that State. Enforcement agents, he declared, had received but little aid from State authorities in the past and have been compelled to carry on their work alone.

NEW FARM BILL PARLEY SLATED

House and Senate Conference to Meet Tomorrow

Hopes of Agreement Revive Chance of Passage

Debut Feature Will be Left to Last

WASHINGTON, May 29. (P)—House members of the farm relief conference committee agreed today to resume negotiations Friday, hopeful that the Senate representatives will agree to eliminate the export debenture plan.

After several days of discussions, in which a way out of the deadlock between the House and Senate over this provision has been sought, Senator McNary of Oregon, chairman of the conference, announced the forthcoming resumption of meetings. House members terminated the meetings last week after informing the Senate conference they will be glad to resume discussions.

State has become lawful or the saloon will return. He cited Federal regulations against manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors.

Congressional Elections Next Year Stir Hopes

NEW YORK, May 29. (Exclusive)—The $1,500,000 deficit of the Democratic National Committee which resulted from an unsuccessful attempt to elect former Gov. Smith President, has been reduced to about $350,000, it was learned today after a conference on party plans for the future at the office of Chairman John J. Raskob.

It was decided at this conference, which was attended by J. P. Morgan, recently named chairman of the executive committee with headquarters at Washington; former Senator Gerry of Rhode Island and Representative Corning of Albany, to go ahead with plans for the rehabilitation of the party on the theory that sufficient funds would be available.

Much of the discussion centered on Mr. Shouse's plans for strengthening the party organizations in the different States in preparation for the Congressional campaign next year.

Aid in Massachusetts Move for Rehearing Planned

Supreme Court Requested to Allow Intervention

Others Affected by Decision Urged to Take Action

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29. (Exclusive)—California will join with Massachusetts and probably other States in asking a United States Supreme Court rehearing of its recent decision affecting the new 4 per cent bank tax law of the State with a threat of losing $1,000,000 or more in annual tax income.

TELEGRAMS SENT

Telegrams were dispatched to Henry C. Long, Commissioner of Taxation for Massachusetts, and the petition for rehearing and promulgating California support. Late today word came from Long that the petition will be filed.

CASE IN QUESTION

The case in point is that of Macallan versus Massachusetts, in which the Supreme Court laid down the mandate that revenues from tax-exempt securities, such as Federal, State and municipal government bonds, must be excluded from the net incomes of banks in levying State taxes.

STATES IN LINE-UP

"Oregon, Washington, Utah and New Mexico also joined Massachusetts, New York and Wisconsin in a good-faith attempt to shape tax laws in conformity with the decision of the Supreme Court."

ALL LANDS SEND STAR DISCIPLINE
 Seventy-Year-Old Woman Java Makes Pilgrimage
 New Zealand, Australia India Represented
 Krishnamurti Gives His Child Obedience

OSAI, May 29.—Among the stars who have come from the corners of the world to the encampment of the Order of the Star here this week there is one who has been looking forward to the event for more than a year. It is a woman from Java, 70 years of age. Her name is Mrs. E. E. Smythe. She is a young Indian philosopher and teacher of life, she says, and she has been looking forward to this country from her land. The voyage she made on a freighter.

BISHOP IN CAMP
 One of the most distant points to arrive came from the East. It is headed by Bishop J. R. Young-Hubbs, Mrs. E. E. Smythe, Miss M. and A. MacDonald. There is a party of four from Australia, and from India, Dr. and Mrs. James H. Cousins. Cousins is a noted Irish poet and one of the most workers for peace in India. Their home is in India.

MUSIC INTERPRETER
 Mrs. Charlemagne Tower, a former Ambassador in many, is another of the stars. At the campsite at Ojai, Camp last night Henry Tower, New York, authority on music in this country, gave an interesting interpretation of music as he had heard it in Burma, India and China. He touched on the every-day life of the individual. In particular, he touched on the education of children, and much more.

"In your plan of education, does obedience come in?" he asked. The answer flashed back. "A child will obey naturally," he has respect for another. Individuals who demand obedience and authority should have in education. If they demand respect, have consideration for others, everybody else will automatically obey."

PUBLIC INVITED
 The public is invited to attend the following meetings:
 Saturday afternoon at 3 p.m. three short one-act plays will be given. Tolstoy's "Michael," written by Malinoff, and two comedies, "George Bernard Shaw's 'The Lady of the Sonnets' and 'Barrie's 'The Little Girl'." Sunday at 2:30 p.m. a program to which the public is invited will consist of a lecture by Krishnamurti, selections by the Bach Singers of Los Angeles, an original unaccompanied interpretation of some of Krishnamurti's poems by the American dancer Ruth St. Denis.

Missing Yacht at San Diego

SAN DIEGO, May 29.—The Alpha, twin-screw Diesel-engine yacht owned by J. W. Perry, a three-millionaire, vice-president and director of the John Deere Company, arrived here today from Balboa, Panama. The trip was made in fourteen days.

When the yacht failed to return this port late yesterday, Perry and government authorities in the four days overdue and the Coast Guard cutter Tamara was sent to search. Capt. Albert Thomas of the cutter reported locating the Alpha late last night about forty miles south of here. The cutter accompanied the craft to port.

Perry, accompanied by his wife, a secretary, H. O. McCrumb, his private counsel, Diego Herrera, came to San Francisco yesterday from San Francisco, reporting to board the Alpha and sail for the Bay City Sunday. Perry tends to cruise the Pacific coast with his wife. "She is in San Francisco."

FAULTY BRAKES CAUSE OF FATAL ACCIDENT

CALABASAS, May 29.—A quest over the body of Miss Ruth, 25 years of age, of Los Angeles, was conducted yesterday by the Van Nuys funeral parlor. The girl was killed when an auto she was driving on Ventura highway ran over a third-floor building.

Police stated the accident was due to faulty brakes on the car. Raymond Johnson, Mrs. Perry's son, Simpson was other passengers in the auto. They received minor injuries.

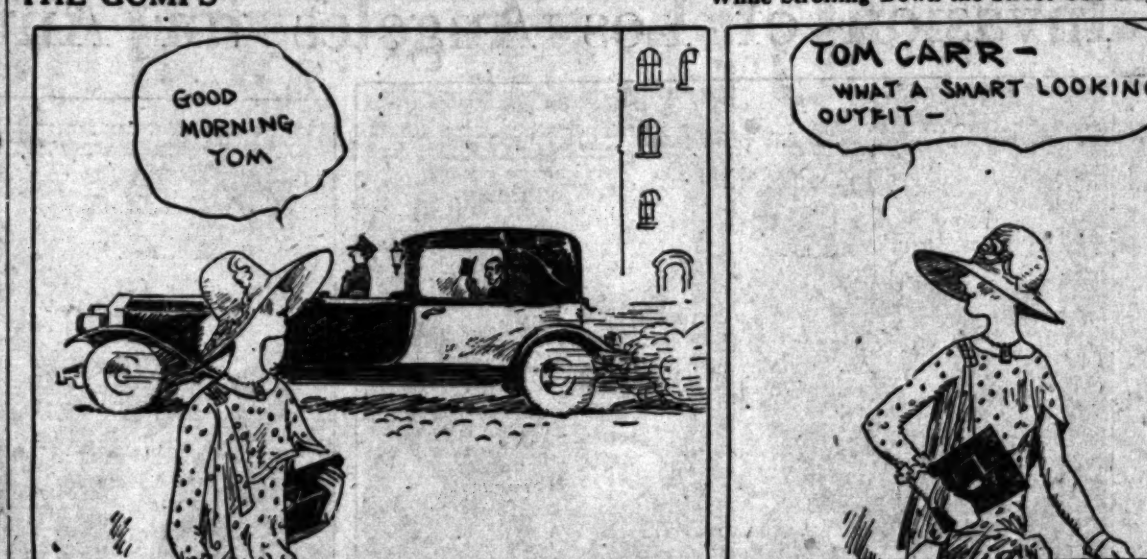

WORKMAN FALLS INTO BOILING TANK

VENTURA, May 29.—A workman, covered with tar, Yulio Riva, 233 South Figueroa street, taken to the hospital this morning for emergency treatment for severe burns.

Riva was employed by the Ventura Company and was working on a new house. He was climbing a ladder with a pail of boiling tar when he fell, plunging his arm when he fell, plunging his face into the bucket of tar. A young, unmarried man, working for the roofing company three weeks, it was said.

Shrine Nobles Open Invasion of Los Angeles for Annual Convention

The Famed Red Fox of the Ancient Arabic Order Nobles of the Mystic Shrine Were in Evidence Here Yesterday as the first of the nobles arrived for the convention next week. No official delegations are due until tomorrow but every incoming train is bringing in individuals. The four highest members of the Imperial Council, all of whom will be in attendance here, are presented above, left to right, Frank C. Jones, Imperial Potentate; Leo V. Youngworth, Imperial Potentate-elect; Esten A. Fletcher, Imperial Chief Rabban Damascus Temple, and T. J. Houston, Imperial Assistant Chief Rabban Medinah Temple.

Tenth Annual Kiddies' Floral Parade is to be held Sunday at Ocean Park with probably 1500 children parading in their flower-bedecked floats. Betty Jane Graham, 7-year-old entrant, has high hopes of being returned the winner.

The First Outboard Motor Speedboat Races to be Staged in Artificial Lagoon on West Coast will be run off at Venice Sunday. Interest is added to the event through the fact Miss 233, named after the 233 Club, a Masonic organization, will be entered in tribute to visiting Shriners. M. C. Martin puts the speedster through her paces.

HIGH LIGHTS IN HISTORY 1354

AFTER THE REVOLUTION OF MARCH, 1917, WHICH RESULTED IN THE OVERTHROW OF THE CEAR AND HIS GOVERNMENT, MANY RUSSIANS BELIEVED THAT RUSSIA SHOULD WITHDRAW FROM THE WORLD WAR. THE RUSSIAN PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT FELT OBLIGATED TO STAND BY THE ALLIES. THE SOVIET WAS IN FAVOR OF AN IMMEDIATE PEACE.

THE PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT, NEEDING POWER TO ENFORCE ITS DECREES, BOUGHT TO CONTROL THE ARMY THROUGH THE MILITARY LEADERS. IN ORGANIZING THE NEW GOVERNMENT, THE DUMA HASTENED TO SECURE ASSURANCES OF SUPPORT FROM THE RUSSIAN GENERALS AT THE FRONT.

THE SOVIET LOOKED FOR HELP NOT TO THE OFFICERS BUT TO THE SOLDIERS. MARCH 15, 1917, THE SOVIET PASSED THE FAMOUS "ORDER NUMBER ONE," WHICH CREATED COMMITTEES OF SOLDIERS IN EVERY ARMY UNIT TO PASS UPON ALL ORDERS RECEIVED FROM THE PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT.

THE SOLDIERS WERE INSTRUCTED NOT TO OBEY ANY GOVERNMENT ORDER WHICH CONFLICTED WITH THOSE OF THE SOLDIERS' COMMITTEES. THESE ARE DESIGNATED AS THE BASIS FOR THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT.

Borden is suing for divorce, claiming that Coetz is not a good father and that she is not a good mother. The case is being heard by the Supreme Court today.

BRITONS CAST BALLOT TODAY

Women Sated to Go to Polls
as Well as Male Voters

Huge Addition to Electorate
Complicates Situation

Three-Cornered Fights Also Increase Confusion

LONDON, May 20. (AP)—Election day tomorrow will be a landmark in the political history of Britain. For the first time the whole adult population, women as well as men, is entitled to go to the polls to make what Premier Baldwin describes as "the greatest experiment in democracy," namely to select the kind of government under which it desires to live.

Man is no longer the sole arbiter of this great duty. It has become a woman's question, for women are in a great majority in the electorate. The "middle of the election," as it is popularly termed, depends on two factors. The first is the addition of some 5,000,000 new women voters to the electorate, and the second the unprecedented number of three-cornered contests, which may send victory to some candidate with a minority of the votes. There are three or more candidates in no fewer than 480 constituencies. At the first general election in 1924 these triangular contests won nearly the entire vote of the Conservatives and against the Liberals. But it does not follow that the same thing will happen this year.

VERDICT AWAITED
"Whatever the verdict I shall accept it cheerfully," said Premier Baldwin at Preston today prior to leaving for Manchester, where he was to deliver the final address of the election campaign tonight.

Both Lloyd George and Ramsay MacDonald, leaders of the other two great parties, spent the day before the election in their own constituencies.

Seven candidates for the next House of Commons were returned by acclamation on nomination day and in Rugby, Warwickshire, election formalities will have to start all over again due to the death of Henry Yates, the Labor candidate.

In the other 607 seats, rival candidates tonight awaited the day of judgment in this complicated and mystifying election.

CONSERVATIVE VIEW
The Conservatives, numerically the strongest party at dissolution of Parliament, admit there are no signs of a landslide their way in any part of the country, but allowing for the reaction against a retiring ministry which is encountered at every election, they are confident they will obtain a majority of fifty over the other parties.

The Liberals declare that the Conservatives will lose 200 of their 415 seats, of which they expect to attract moderates from both the Conservative and the Labor groups. Labor leaders are the most confident of all. They regard their chances as unusually strong in all industrial centers, but admit weakness in rural districts, where Conservatism is traditional.

As was anticipated, the campaign

KING GIVEN LAST HORSE LAUGH

English Will Send George on Scotland Hunt Airlin' Mechanical Pony

LONDON, May 20. (Exclusive)—When during Calvin Coolidge's administration, the White House's famous electric horse came into prominence, a snicker went round the London press. The opportunity for American cartoonists to make a snappy comeback at their British colleagues occurs this morning with the announcement that King George will have a mechanized pony when he goes shooting at Balmoral in Scotland in the fall.

Special arrangements are made to enable the sovereign to enjoy the full sport of shooting. A motor tractor of the latest type will be delivered at Balmoral very shortly, to enable the king to traverse freely and with more comfort the more difficult parts of his Deeside estates.

cloves without any predominant issue except the Lloyd George unemployment scheme. Both Labor and the Liberals today continued their attack on Premier Baldwin for issuing an election appeal on newspaper of No. 10 Downing street, bearing the royal arms. No. 10 Downing street is the official residence of the Premier.

ACTION CRITICISED

This action they declare was not only improper, but was an attempt to drag the crown into politics.

The Southampton Labor party has wired the King at Windsor protesting against an asserted statement by Lord Thirsk that "we are going to support the party headed by our beloved King and followed by our great friend, Mr. Baldwin."

In Liverpool there has been some hot fighting over a washbub. Lord Mayor of Liverpool and now Lord Mayor of London, has been taken while manipulating a municipal washbub. Some Laborites have loudly protested that this was an intolerable misuse of public property. In another constituency the Conservatives are sharply divided over a divorce. In a third one of the candidates was hit with a brick.

Otherwise, the campaign has been without undue excitement.

Vatican Group Asserts No

Approval of Pontiff

VATICAN CITY, May 20. (AP)—The entourage of the Pope considers it extremely unlikely that his Holiness has approved a plan of action with regard to a settlement of the religious question in Mexico. If he has it was said today in competent quarters he has kept his own counsel about it.

The presumption here is that his silence can be interpreted as indicating that developments have not reached a head. Reports from Washington, that Vatican approval has been given a projected plan of settlement excited some interest but were discounted.

Vatican attaches considered Monsignor Rube Y Flores, archbishop of Michoacan, reported last in Washington, as the likeliest source of news regarding moves for a settlement.

Couple Sought
as Death Sequel

REDWOOD CITY, May 20. (Exclusive)—Criminal nuisance warrants were issued against Anna Peterson and Ralph Dickinson of Menlo Park today as an aftermath of the death of Mrs. Alvine H. Thurston Bell of the wealthy colony at Atherton.

Mrs. Bell, whose husband is one of the heirs to several millions, was found by a coroner's jury to have died from natural causes, aggravated by excessive stimulants. Mrs. Peterson and Dickinson are said to have been the Bell bootleggers. Both have police records, Dickinson's including a jail sentence for assault, his victim having died from the effects of a gun-barrel beating.

Loan Approved to Dollar Line

WASHINGTON, May 20. (AP)—The Shipping Board today approved a loan of $1,125,000 for reconditioning and improving four passenger-cargo steamships of the Dollar Steamship Company.

The vessels will be placed in the "round-the-world" service of the Dollar company as soon as the work of refitting and furnishing additional passenger accommodations is completed. The ships are the S.S. President Harrison, President Garfield, President Adams, and one ship to be chosen from the President Hayes, President Monroe, and the President Van Buren.

PRESBYTERIANS END ASSEMBLY

Protests on Seminary Action Dismissed at St. Paul

Cincinnati Selected as Next Conference Center

San Jose Pastor Elected to Judicial Board

ST. PAUL, May 20. (AP)—Dismissing two formal protests against its action in ordering reorganization of the management of Princeton Theological Seminary, the one hundred and forty-first general assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America denied that any change in the doctrinal stand at the seminary is contemplated.

The protests originated with fundamentalists who fought the reorganization plan on the ground that it would place the seminary in a position open to change in its theological position. Proponents of the new management plan denied this and the action of the whole assembly, in its concluding session this afternoon, added unexpected emphasis to this position.

ANSWER TO PROTEST
The statement adopted by the assembly was in answer to a protest presented by Dr. J. A. Barr of New Orleans and others.

A plea for unity and for setting aside minor dissension to make more energy available for the greater work of the church was made by Dr. Cleland B. McAfee of Chicago, moderator, as a final event of the assembly. Greater activity in both foreign and home mission activities also was urged.

CINCINNATI CHOSEN
Cincinnati was chosen as the place of the 1939 assembly.

New members of the church's general council elected today are Rev. William Hiram Foulkes, Newark, N. J.; Rev. W. E. Brooks, Morgantown, W. Va.; Dr. John M. T. Finney, Baltimore; W. R. Heath, Buffalo, N. Y.; and Charles S. Lawrence, Wichita, Kan.

The following were elected as new members of the permanent judicial commission of the church: Rev. Joseph A. Stevenson, San Jose, Cal.; Rev. William B. Lampe, St. Louis; H. H. Adams, Omaha; H. Hall Har- Jr., Baltimore; and Hallowell C. Sherrard, Pittsburgh.

Oil King Friendly With

Swiss Riding-Master Mate

NEW YORK, May 20. (Exclusive)—A Swiss riding master twice the age of John D. Rockefeller's granddaughter is entirely acceptable to the oil king as a husband for the girl, and especially acceptable as the father of Rockefeller's great-grandchildren.

Old John D. made this clear today when he welcomed McCormick Oser, still in her early twenties, and her husband Max, former riding master, in his late forties, to the United States. They arrived from Switzerland today.

He also indicated that one of his sincere wishes is to dandle the great-grandchildren. Anita, 4 years of age, and Peter, 2, on his knee. The McCormicks and Rockefeller are on the friendliest terms with her family.

"Welcome home to America. Hope you and the children will visit us soon," Mrs. Oser, happy in motherhood and the devotion of her riding-master husband, revealed that the McCormicks and Rockefeller are on the friendliest terms with her family.

"The reason I took us seven years to pay our first visit to this country after our marriage is that we did not want the children to suffer from the long journey," she explained.

Giant Bonfire Lighted as Duke Becomes of Age

LONDON, May 20. (Exclusive)—One of the largest bonfires ever seen in England was touched off today by Bernard Marmaduke Fitzalan Howard, Duke of Norfolk, on the occasion of his coming of age today.

The present Duke is the sixteenth to bear the title and comes from one of England's oldest families.

The monstrous bonfire for the 21-year-old Duke was lighted tonight on the top of Bury Hill from which the flames can be seen in three counties. Thirty feet across and fifty feet high, the tremendous beacon burned for hours.

Feasting will be continued during an entire week, all the inhabitants of the near-by districts partaking of the hospitality of the ducal family.

The last time a Duke of Norfolk celebrated his coming of age was sixty-one years ago.

Car Thief Asks to be Retired

CHICAGO, May 20. (Exclusive)—The meanest robber was discovered today. He criticized the old tires on a victim's automobile and forced the motorist to get him four new ones before stealing the car.

The victim is William Robinson, a colored porter who had just driven to work at a tire store in his sedan.

"The car's all right but them tires are sure bum," the bandit said. "Get me four new ones to fit them rims and throw them on the back seat. I couldn't drive anywhere on them old tires."

Intimidated by one of the robber's guns, Robinson complied.

[Open Saturdays

Taking $10,000 out of the collar

but we said,
No thanks, we'll leave it in!

We puzzle both ends of the clothing industry. A successful manufacturer paid us a friendly visit at our Watervliet, N. Y. plant and protested at the 8 hand-operations in tailoring F & C coat-collars. "You could save $10,000 on those collars every season" he exclaimed. "Why put $50 work into a $30 suit?"

No one knows better how well Foreman and Clark build clothes than the clothing makers of America! No one knows better the real facts in the low-priced clothing field! No one knows better the "rebel" quality hand-tailored into every F and C suit or topcoat... the F and C insistence upon building clothes as though they were to last at high-range prices... then pricing them at $20, $25 and $35! Some of them cheer for it... most of them object.

Why they object:

Because Foreman and Clark have rebelled too well against machine-made methods of chain store production! We have lifted this business too far out of the rut of ordinary clothing practice! We have crossed too many headlines of quality, upset too many scales of ordinary value! We have given $20, $25 and $35 a buying power (for 3/4 of a million men) too far ahead of all "sensible" ratios of value!

We have "hurt" the clothing industry. Those are the charges!

An old, old story

But it's an old, old story in any American industry. The rebel's punishment—if he is weak—is failure. But his reward—if he can win and merit public confidence... is overwhelming success. Ford smashed the "closed circle" of price in motor cars... Curtis smashed the high cost of magazine enjoyment with a nickel weekly... Brilliant rebels! And Foreman and Clark will keep right on—everybody knows it now—with the same fine, hand-tailored clothes at the same coast-to-coast, factory prices!

How wrong he was!

The visitor at our factory was wrong. We are not "putting $50.00 work into a $30.00 suit." We are building $50.00 suits... $50.00 quality in woollens, in linings, in tailoring, in trimmings, in style, in strength and durability.

—on a huge scale!

Not in 1 factory—but in 5. Not on a handful of garments—but on 5000 to 8000 suits and topcoats weekly!

TRUCK COMPANY FORGING AHEAD

Moreland Sales and Profits Holding Up Strong

Second Quarter Promises to Duplicate First

Official Forecasts Increase Over 1928 Income

With sales and earnings for the current quarter keeping up the record set during the first three months of 1929 Moreland Truck Company and subsidiaries for the first half of this year will show substantial gains over the same period of the previous year, Watt J. Moreland, vice-president and general manager, stated yesterday.

In the earnings report for the first quarter published recently, sales income was in excess of $1,000,000, an increase of about 10 per cent over the corresponding period of the previous year. Net earnings after all charges totaled $250,000, or at the annual rate of $1.66 per share on the common stock.

Gross income from sales for the first half of 1929 amounted to $1,600,844.04, while the 1928 first-quarter sales and those of the current quarter indicate that the company will reach or exceed $2,000,000 by June 30.

The bulk of the sales has been in the six-wheel truck line, according to Mr. Moreland, who pointed out that the company, a pioneer in the development of this type of truck, is benefiting from the public realization that the four-wheel drive on heavy trucks caused less wear on highways and afforded better driving control as well as conforming to the highway law and regulations of the various States.

In the light truck line the company's new model called the Ace is proving popular, he added, and in the medium truck line the new model called the B is being built in an assembly plant at Seattle which will be completed by July 15.

The company recently sent exhibits of its various models to the truck exhibition being conducted by the United States Army at Camp Holabird near Baltimore, Md. Moreland has developed a military truck and is negotiating with the government for contracts, according to Mr. Moreland.

Kolster Radio States Terms of Stock Offer

NEW YORK, May 29. (Exclusive) Kolster Radio Corporation has called a special stockholders' meeting for June 21 to vote upon a proposal to increase the capitalization of the company by the creation of a new authorized issue of 100,000 no-par convertible preferred shares of which 100,000 shares will be offered to present stockholders for the purpose of providing funds for expansion developments now in progress.

Under terms of the offer, present common stockholders will receive the right to subscribe to the new preferred stock at $25 a share in the ratio of one share of preferred stock for eight shares of common now held. The new preferred stock will be entitled to noncumulative dividends at the rate of 84 annual dividends in the event earnings in any year are equivalent to 10 a share on the outstanding preferred issue and will be callable at $80 a share.

The preferred stock will be convertible into common on a share-for-share basis for the first 50,000 shares of preferred, one share of preferred plus $5 in cash for each share of common for the next 25,000 shares of preferred, and one share plus $10 in cash for each share of common for the remaining 25,000 shares of preferred.

Mutual Chain Stores Added to MacMarr's

Negotiations effecting a consolidation of MacMarr Stores, Inc., and Mutual Stores, Inc., were successfully concluded yesterday, resulting in the formation of the Mutual Chain Stores, Inc., a new chain store of the Mutual Stores, Inc., which will include the MacMarr system a complete chain up and down the Coast.

The Mutual organization operates throughout San Francisco and the Bay district with approximately 300 grocery stores, fifty markets, twenty delicatessens, several creameries, an ice-cream plant and bakeries. Rosa McIntyre, president of MacMarr, who made the announcement, stated that this acquisition will increase MacMarr's sales about $16,000,000 annually to a total of about $45,000,000.

The amount involved in the deal totaled approximately $6,000,000 in cash and securities, according to the announcement. Debenture bonds of the Mutual Stores, Inc., amounting to $1,500,000 and $800,000 preferred stock of the Mutual are being called for redemption.

Last week the MacMarr system formally took over Von's and the E. A. Morrison grocery chain system here.

Investment Unit Earnings Jump

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29. (Exclusive) North American Investment Corporation announced today a net income for the twelve months ended April 30, last, of $898,995 after all charges, equal after preferred dividends to $14.01 a share on the 40,851 shares of common stock outstanding.

This compares with a net income of $248,032 reported, earned during the preceding year ended April 30, 1928, which was equal to $8.81 a share on the common. Gross earnings aggregated $924,531 against $238,119 last year.

NET INCOME OF OIL RECTIFIERS HIGHER

P. C. Norcross, president of the Petroleum Rectifying Corporation, announced yesterday that the earnings of the Petroleum Rectifying Corporation and subsidiaries for the first quarter of 1929, after depreciation and reserve for taxes, were $87,044, equal to 72 cents per share on the outstanding stock. The net earnings for the corresponding quarter of 1928, after reserve for depreciation and Federal taxes and adjustment to conform to the present corporate structure, were $73,474. The 1929 earnings represent an 18 1/2 per cent increase.

LIABILITY LAW REVAMPED

Amendment Passed by Legislature Allows Limited Charters for California Corporations

BY EARLE E. CROWE

Scores of corporations doing business in California are expected to take advantage of the limited liability provisions introduced into the corporate law structure by the last Legislature. This amendment to the Civil Code allows California corporations to avoid the widely criticized unlimited liability of stockholders by reincorporating under a limited charter.

Stockholders of corporations operating under a California charter now are liable to creditors of the corporation for their proportionate share of the total debt. This provision constitutes unlimited liability for stockholders and is in force in only two other States, Michigan and Louisiana.

MAY USE "LTD."

Under the new amendment, California corporations are permitted to adopt limited liability by the use of the word "limited," or the abbreviation "Ltd." in the corporate name, and by specifying limited liability in the articles of incorporation. The election by corporations of limited liability does not, however, restrict stockholders from their liability for any debts incurred prior to the adoption of the amendment or to the issuance of limited liability stock.

The stockholders of California corporations operating under limited provisions, the corporation itself will be the only resource for creditors seeking to collect debts. The stockholders will not be liable for any part of any liability incurred by the corporation, except for the amount of their investment in the corporation. If the liability throws the corporation into bankruptcy, the stockholder in an unlimited company is responsible for the proportion his number of shares bears to the number of shares outstanding.

Use of the word "limited" in the corporate name is permissible in most other States to denote limited liability, but the practice is not common. An example is the reorganization of Claude Neon Electrical Products, an Arizona corporation, into a Delaware corporation under the name of Claude Neon Electrical Products Incorporated, Ltd.

BANK LIABILITY HIT

Delaware, Virginia, Kentucky, New Jersey and Nevada are the most popular States for new corporations because of the liberality of their corporation laws. California, so many corporation lawyers have asserted, is backward in this respect, and has not encouraged companies to incorporate under its laws. The first step in liberalization took place about two years ago when a Supreme Court ruling in the case of Light and Power gave permitted corporations to issue shares of no-par value, provided all shares in the capital structure conformed to the same classification.

With respect to the constitutional liability of stockholders in California banks operating under a charter, the California law recently suffered a severe reversal, which also affects the liability of stockholders in general corporations. The Superintendent of Banks under the Bank Act, sought to collect 100 per cent assessments from stockholders of the First National Bank of Livingston, but the Supreme Court decided that the law does not create any personal liability for assessments.

The effect of this decision, according to a recent statement by the State Banking Department, is that creditors of a defunct State bank must proceed by individual suits against stockholders, which is a cumbersome and costly process. In the opinion of the department, that virtually nullifies the so-called proportional liability in the case of a bank.

Boost Pends on Loan Placing

NEW YORK, May 29. (P)—The New York Clearinghouse Association, it was learned today, is considering another effort to check the increasing volume of loans offered through banks in the call-money market by corporations and others.

A special meeting of the association has been called for Friday to discuss a proposal for raising by one-half of 1 per cent the charge made for placing such loans. The proposed rate would be 1 per cent. It is also understood that an attempt will be made to increase the minimum of the amount lent from the present $100,000 figure. The fee was raised last September from 5 per cent of the interest received to one-half of 1 per cent of the principal.

Douglas Aircraft Gets New Order

Receipt of a new order for twenty observation planes for the United States Army was announced yesterday by officials of the Douglas Aircraft Company. The order involves a total of about $250,000 and provides for delivery by November 1.

Forty airplanes of the same type were recently completed and delivered by the Douglas company to the army. The additional order for the twenty observation planes was placed by the materials division of the Army Air Corps for delivery to National Guard units for training work.

WASHINGTON, May 29. (Exclusive)—The Interstate Commerce Commission today placed a final value for rate-making purposes on the Central Railroad of New Jersey at $132,886,089 as of June 30, 1918. This figure includes $3,110,000 of working capital.

BANK BOARD AIR-MAIL COST CUT HINTED

BY GIANNINI Announces Addition of Three to Directorate of Transamerica

Announcement of the election of Elsie Walker, Harry Bronner and Hunter S. Marston to the board of directors of Transamerica Corporation was made yesterday by A. P. Giannini, president. Mr. Walker was appointed chairman of the executive committee, but also an international association that ranks with the oldest and best known in America or Europe.

This action, it was pointed out, brings to Transamerica the benefit of the affiliations and contacts which these men and their partnership have throughout the world and provides a relationship that insures for the corporation not only a nation-wide distribution of capital but also an international association that ranks with the oldest and best known in America or Europe.

Col. L. H. Britton of the Northwest Airways, Chicago to the Twin Cities, sees little hope, however, of air-passenger service being made self-supporting without the air-mail contracts in less than five years.

Since John D. Rockefeller, Jr., signed a lease with Columbia University for approximately three square blocks in the heart of New York for a proposed new opera house site, Columbia trustees have issued a warning that this richest of American universities needs still more millions to carry on.

Columbia's immediate building needs alone total $8,000,000, and the increased income from the Rockefeller lease will not be available to provide any part of this amount, it is said.

It seems that the university will have to borrow money for the purpose of recapturing certain of the leaseholds, and for other necessary expenditures, to the tune of nearly $6,000,000. This will have to be repaid out of the increased income from the lease. In the meantime, more money is needed. This large

Allied Aviation on Trading List

Application of Allied Aviation Industries, Inc., for listing 110,000 shares of no par common stock has been approved by the Los Angeles Curb Exchange and will be called for trading at a date to be announced later.

The company, with a total authorized capital of $200,000 shares of common stock, has developed three types of radial air-cooled engines, five, seven and nine cylinders. The concern also owns a device called "Thermopump" which heats the oil supply for plane motors, said to save 85 per cent of warming-up time.

VICTOR TALKING TO RETIRE TWO ISSUES

NEW YORK, May 29. (Exclusive) Victor Talking Machine Company has called for redemption August 1 its $4 cumulative convertible preferred stock, of which a negligible amount is outstanding, at $110 a share and accrued dividend, and all the 180,000 shares of 10 per cent cumulative prior preference stock outstanding. The company also called attention to the fact that the right to convert $4 cumulative convertible preferred on a basis of one share for two shares of common will expire August 1.

EARNINGS GAIN FOR PRODUCTS CONCERN

NEW YORK, May 29. (Exclusive) International Products Corporation reported today a March quarter net income of $288,887 after all charges, equal after preferred dividends, to 46 cents a share on $22,115 common shares. JURY SELECTED IN GRIMES CASE
Nine Men and Three Women Will Try "Frame-up"

Panel Placed Under Guard; Testimony Tomorrow
Jacobson Will be Called as Prosecution Witness

WILL CALL JACOBSON
The first witness after the court and jury return from the trip to the Beagle-street house will be a deputy county surveyor, who will give the jury the lay of the land, said Dep.
Dist. Atty. Denison and Bush, prosecuting, to be followed by Councilman Jacobson, who during the three dreary days of getting a jury has been an interested front-row spectator.

WASTE MANY JURORS
Some sort of a record was established in wastefulness of jury material. One hundred and four persons were examined in order to get the twelve jurors and the two alternates. Of these twenty-nine were removed from the box by defense peremptory challenges, seven by prosecution peremptory challenges, twenty-one had fixed opinions as to the guilt or innocence of the defendants and thirty-three were excused for a variety of reasons.

SUNDAY BAN ON CINEMAS REQUESTED
Good Government Body in Appeal to Council Hits at Asserted Menace

The City Council was petitioned by the Good Government Association yesterday to pass an ordinance prohibiting the operation of motion picture theaters in this city on Sunday. The petition was referred to the Council's Public Welfare Committee. According to the communication received by the Council the picture houses should be closed for the following reasons:

(1) The Lord says that we should keep the Sabbath day holy.
(2) Picture shows on Sunday have no bearing on the Bible.
(3) Sunday matinees encourage minors who would otherwise be keeping the Sabbath holy.

The rougher element congregates round picture shows in the outlying districts, setting a bad example for the younger generation.
(4) The curfew picture shows decrease the attendance in the Sunday schools, thereby depriving the children of the proper training.

WAR DEAD HONORED TODAY
Official Memorial Day Services at Coliseum; Veterans and Others Plan Many Programs

With the city gaily decorated today with colors honoring the nation, it is the duty of every citizen to see to the correct display of the national flag, according to the American Legion and other patriotic organizations.

Memorial Day the flag is displayed at half-staff from sunrise until noon, and at full staff from noon until sunset. When down at half-staff the flag should be hoisted to the peak for an instant and then lowered.

A survey made by the American Legion during the past few years has shown that more than half the flagstaffs in the metropolitan area have been without flags on Memorial Day, and of those that did fly the national colors only a small number observed the regulation.

Memorial Day services beginning this morning and continuing throughout the day will mark Los Angeles' tribute to the heroic dead. In every section of the city observances have been arranged, as well as the Coliseum, where the Memorial Day parade is to begin at 1:30 p.m. and last for two hours, and concluding with a review of the One Hundred and Sixtieth Infantry. Seventy-five war veteran organizations and Haskins. Antonio A. P. Entenza, Past National Commander of the Spanish-American War Veterans, is announced to deliver the oration.

FIRE DESTROYS U.S.C. PAVILION

Valuable Antiques Damaged by Pouring Water

Former Student and Two Firemen Injured

Museum Contents Removed as Roof Ignites

Antiques valued at more than $500,000 in the museum of the University of Southern California were threatened with destruction and many pieces damaged, perhaps irreparably, during the fighting of a fire on the university's campus last night which totally destroyed the basketball pavilion at 823 Exposition Boulevard.

A former student and two firemen received painful burns and bruises in the conflagration which reduced the huge frame structure of approximately three stories to a smoldering heap of ashes within an hour. Loss of the pavilion is estimated at $10,000.

ATHLETE INJURED
Carl Joanovsky, 22 years of age, former student and basketball player, received injuries and burns while smashing doors and windows to liberate two men he, at that time, believed trapped in the fire.

Dewey J. Littlefield, 35, of Engine Company 15, and J. L. Hume, 39, of Fire Company 7, received burns in their faces and eyes, which temporarily affects their sight, but are not expected to prove serious. All were treated at the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital.

The fire was discovered at 6:30 p.m. by Clarke Harmon and Herman Hirdler, clerks and attendants at the pavilion, who were returning to duty after dinner. They told the firemen they saw smoke and flames boiling up from the southeast side of the structure near where supply rooms and an electric master switch were located, which strengthened the reports that a short circuit caused the fire.

WINDOWS SMASHED
Without the knowledge that Harmon and Hirdler had not seen trapped at their duties in the burning structure Joanovsky, son of the local Czech-Slovakian Consul, also gave an alarm and began breaking doors and windows.

Inside the structure amid the crackling flames Joanovsky searched for the two men until nearly overcome with smoke. With retreat almost cut off he started to run from the building when he tripped in an entanglement of fallen wires. He barely escaped before the blazing roof fell away and fell.

With the grandstand pavilion obviously doomed the firemen turned their attention to saving the museum near by, where almost priceless antiques of early motion-picture history, rare paintings, ancient armor and other art objects are stored.

ANTIQUES REMOVED
When the roof of the frame museum crumbled in several places hundreds of students and residents of the neighborhood began removing the antiques, piling them in the street, where they received a thorough drenching from the tons of water played on the building. Before they could be taken to the basement of the Science Building the objects sustained considerable water damage. J. T. Armstrong, curator, values the collection at more than $500,000.

Mary Malone, Trojan football player, reported he, with Charles Wright and Edward Goldstein, broke into the burning museum and saved a Tintoretto of extraordinary value, an Egyptian bust reputed to be 3000 years of age and many pictures and engravings. These were placed for safety in the president's office. Malone added that among the art treasures lost were a Rembrandt and a collection of 500 engravings titled "The Lost Art."

The destroyed building was insured, university officials said, but the amount was not announced last night. It was erected in 1922 at a cost of $7500 for basketball and physical education.

As the roaring flames consumed the pavilion and lighted up the surrounding neighborhood, thousands of students and residents gathered in the streets before the spectacular blaze.

The Lancer by Harry Carr

A NEW West is being born, and at the rate things are happening I should say it is going to be a seven-months' baby.

If you would like to know what this new West will be, I recommend you to two whooping young cities—Houston, Tex., and Phoenix, Ariz.

They make me think of a flapper college graduate who comes home to shove all the old parlor furniture into the attic and burns up the treasured lambskins.

It makes me feel a little and for the old folks—and for the memory of the days that were.

RIGHT OFF THE GRIDDLE
This little Arizona city is having a great building boom. One of her finest hotels looks as though it had come straight from Fifth Avenue and Fifty-seventh Street. The new Arizona Biltmore Hotel is one of the few great pieces of architecture of recent years that takes nothing from any other country or any other period. It is a brand-new architecture.

The point is that none of the fine new buildings smell of the West—or of the traditions upon which the West was built. All that old stuff has been thrown away.

STAGE SCENERY
I talked sorrowfully to the architect. He sounded as though Phoenix itself were speaking.

The reason that most of your Hollywood Spanish homes look like stage scenery, he said, "is that they don't belong there. However you may admire the days before the gringo came, you can't bring those days back. The gringo is here."

"No good architecture ever came from a conscious pursuit of beauty or romance.

"The mission architecture wasn't very good; but whatever virtues it had came from utility. The padres built their roofs without eaves—not to start a new Hollywood fad, but because they couldn't find roof beams long enough."

WHY SHOULD IT?
I asked him if when the new Phoenix spreads herself over the map the town will have any flavor of the old Spanish days.

"I hope not," he said, "why should it? I also hope it will not become an imitation New York. We have no Spanish traditions. The Spanish lived their day. We are living ours."

MOURNING
I sympathize with him a little bit. I like to mourn over the passing of the old days—and do things that never were heard of before. You will have to admit that the old days make swell mourning material.

STATION PLAN REFERRED
Lease of the area just north of the fire station on First street, Wilmington, and extending from the engine house to the inner bay reception line, to a depth of 125 feet for construction of a central fire and police alarm station for the harbor district, requested by the department of building and safety, was referred by the Harbor Commission yesterday to General Manager Edwards. The building and safety division plans to spend $60,000 on the project.

Doctor Ordered Held on Suspicion of Murder in Torso Mystery

OFFICERS SEEK DEATH LOCALE

Mrs. Sutton Named as Victim in State Complaint

Mysterious Pasadena Visit Expedites Action

Hand-Writing Expert Calls Letters Forgeries

Dr. Frank P. Westlake, 58 years of age, who says he once was an army surgeon, was ordered held yesterday on suspicion of murder in connection with the Los Angeles River torso-murder mystery. The complaint, as drawn by Assistant Chief Deputy District Attorney Jordana names the victim of the murder as Mrs. Laura B. Sutton, asserted sweetheart of Dr. Westlake.

The manner in which the arms, legs and head were severed from the body and the location of the crime are still mysteries to Capt. Bright of the Sheriff's homicide squad and Deputy Chief, Allen and Gomer, who have been at work on the case since April 4, last.

WOMAN'S 'MANAGER'
Dr. Westlake has been in technical custody for several days, following the revelation that he possessed funds to property, a considerable sum of money which had belonged to Mrs. Sutton, her bank books and her will and a life-insurance policy. The suspect denied all knowledge of the crime and asserted that he does not believe Mrs. Sutton is dead.

Circumstantial evidence against the doctor, however, is given by officers as the reason for the warrant charge against him. Dr. Westlake became involved in the affairs of Mrs. Sutton six years ago before she obtained a divorce from Eugene Sutton. Since the Suttons separated Dr. Westlake took charge of Mrs. Sutton's business affairs as her "manager," he admitted to the deputies.

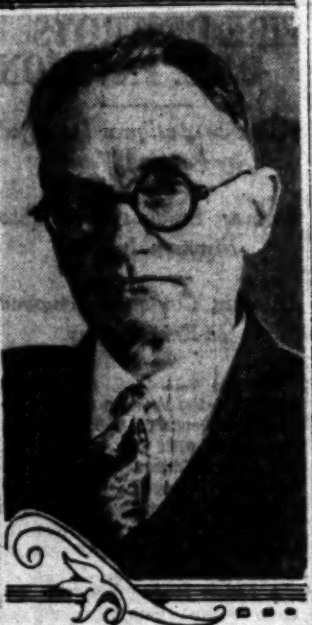

BOOMER QUESTIONED
Mrs. Sutton lived at 2012 West Thirtieth street and had as a roomer Ben King, a taxi cab driver, who also has been questioned in the case, asserted he had given practically all the money he had earned in the last three years to Mrs. Sutton and had aided her in buying several lots.

When Mrs. Sutton's mother died last February Dr. Westlake induced her to open a joint account with him. She deposited $750 to the joint account and when King, who asserted he had asked the woman to marry him, objected to the arrangement a quarrel followed. Dr. Westlake, Mrs. Sutton and King engaged in the argument and when King threatened to leave, Mrs. Sutton is asserted to have snatched up a pistol and held it to her head.

LAST SEEN IN MARCH
King took the gun away from her and later gave it to Dr. Westlake. This incident occurred on March 26, last. King said he never saw Mrs. Sutton after that. Dr. Westlake said he went to Mrs. Sutton's home several days later and was requested by her to drive her to the depot where she intended to catch a train for Ventura.

Dr. Westlake told the deputies that his machine broke down at Pico street and Union avenue and Mrs. Sutton got out to catch a street car. He said he never saw her after that. On April 4, last, the headless, armless and legless torso of a woman was found in the swollen Los Angeles River at Compton. Six weeks later the head was found in the river sands four miles farther north. The teeth and other char-activities were identified as those of Mrs. Sutton.

MYSTERIOUS TRIP
Then came the revelations that involved Dr. Westlake. He failed to disclose any of his dealings with Mrs. Sutton and it was only by chancing him that circumstances came to light which entangled him. A mysterious trip he made last Saturday night to Pasadena was the first move the deputies detected.

HUNTED HOUSE
A minute search was made of Dr. Westlake's two-story home at 1810 West Eleventh street, but the deputies found nothing indicating a crime had been committed there. Constant questioning of the suspect brought out the information that Dr. Westlake and Mrs. Sutton had gone "house-hunting" in the Echo Park district several days before her disappearance. He exhibited letters, purporting to have been written by Mrs. Sutton since her disappearance, but which Clark Sellers, handwriting expert, asserts are not in the handwriting of the missing woman.

One of the letters was typewritten on a sheet of tablet paper, but the envelope had been addressed with pen and ink.

The letter made inquiries about the two canary birds Mrs. Sutton had left in her home and also asked about the whereabouts of Ben King, the boarder. The note requested that a reply be made in the "personal column" of a newspaper.

INSERTED REPLY
Dr. Westlake inserted a reply in one of the papers and exhibited it to the deputies. The reason for Mrs. Sutton writing such a letter and asking for a reply through newspaper advertisements was unexplained as she could have telephoned the deputies assert.

After two days of probing into Dr. Westlake's connection with Mrs. Sutton, the suspect astonished the deputies by exhibiting a note for $300 which he claimed had been signed by Mrs. Sutton on the 3rd

ARMY AND NAVY DUDS BANNED

Law to be Enforced Against Service Clothes Being Worn by Civilians

Use of army or navy uniforms, either in part or in whole, by persons not in service, will meet with prosecution on the part of the government if it was made known yesterday at the office of U. S. Atty. McNabb.

It was pointed out that a number of persons are wearing parts of army and navy uniforms, which is against the law. Such violations will be prosecuted to the limit, it was stated. Conviction may mean a fine of $300, or six months in jail, or both.

DO NOT FIT
The circumstances surrounding the note of the 3rd inst. do not fit consistently with the actions of Dr. Westlake on that date, as revealed by the story told by King, the taxi driver. According to King, Dr. Westlake came to his home and asked him to aid in searching for Mrs. Sutton. He suggested to King that they watch the cemetery at San Gabriel where Mrs. Sutton's mother was buried.

Both of them knew that Mrs. Sutton visited her mother's grave several times a week. For an entire week King stayed all night at the cemetery in the belief that Mrs. Sutton would take flowers there. Frequently Dr. Westlake would drive out to the cemetery to chat with King on his visit, and to encourage him to keep it up.

NOTE IN POCKET
During this time, according to Dr. Westlake's story to Capt. Bright, he had the note, purporting to be from Mrs. Sutton, in his pocket. He did not attempt to explain the inconsistency when confronted with King. Although the evidence against Dr. Westlake is admittedly circumstantial, Capt. Bright asserted he was following clues which he believes will substantiate the charges against the suspect. Little of Dr. Westlake's past is known to the Sheriff's office. He asserted he received a diploma from the Eclectic Medical school in Cincinnati in 1900. The school is not recognized by the laws of California and the doctor was not permitted to practice medicine in this State.

Every deputy in the homicide squad was ordered out in the search for the house or apartment where the murder possibly was committed.

"Times" Staff Representative

AVAILON, May 28.—The gala opening of the $2,000,000 casino commemorating ten years of the ownership of Catalina Island by William Wrigley, Jr., today brought to this paradise tale 10,000 preholiday visitors. The memorial casino, which had its formal opening this afternoon, is one of the unique structures of Southern California.

The dedication ceremony was pre-arranged in the dance room of the new casino, led by Mayor Paulson and Dist. Atty. Pitts, followed by various organizations, among which were the South Pasadena American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps, the Catalina Drum and Bugle Corps and the Catalina Island Band. The parade moved up Central avenue to the magnificent structure just completed for the use of visitors to Catalina, where Dist. Atty. Pitts made the dedicatory address.

BUILDING INSPECTED
Following the address the hundreds of visitors were given their first view of the structure erected on Sugar Lost Point by the chewing-gum magnate, and during the afternoon viewed the theater, the expensive ballroom and the various features designed to accommodate the vacation public.

Tonight thousands of colored lights focused from points on the mountain side shed multicolored beams across the bay, as visitors to the island attended the opening

C., recently, after 112 years' service. It is reported that the Shrine Music Directors' Association, to be held at the Maryland Hotel, Pasadena, at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday.

A caravan of 100 automobiles will take the 250 members of the Moines (Iowa) delegation for a tour of Montebello, Orange, Santa Ana and Long Beach Monday. The party will leave their parked train on Southern Pacific track No. 27 at 9 a.m. A special police escort has been assigned to the tour. An honor luncheon has been arranged for the visitors at Orange County Park, was announced by F. O. Evans, Past Potentate of the Temple, who will direct the party. The Shriners will return Monday night.

Treasure Case Habeas Corpus Comes Up on June 3

Bay City Officer Will Wait for Fraud Suspect

Inquiry Will Take Place on Former Activities

Hearing on a writ of habeas corpus filed by Dr. Armauerd Karl Graves, promoter of a buried treasure expedition and now in the City Jail charged with grand theft, went over to June 3 in Superior Judge Shaw's court yesterday afternoon. Graves was to have been returned to San Francisco where the charges against him were sworn to by Henry Kirchmann, Jr., when his hearing was set over.

Detective Lieutenant McCarron of the local police department, and Detective Froh of the San Francisco force who is in this city to take Graves north, declared yesterday after the brief court appearance that they will put in the next few days attempting to trace Graves' asserted activities here in 1925 when it is declared by the officers, he attempted to procure a treasure hunting expedition similar to the one which involved him in his present trouble.

Graves who purports to have operated as a spy in many foreign nations was taken into custody here several days ago on information supplied by Kirchmann, Jr., who asserted that Graves victimized him out of $3000 which was to have financed a treasure hunting trip for jewels and gold obtained by raiding German war vessels during the war and said to have been buried on islands in the Caribbean.

Yesterday from his cell in the City Jail Graves declared that all the charges against him are false and that when he returns to San Francisco where he is said to have made the deal with Kirchmann, Jr., he will be able to prove his contention. He has retained Attorneys Robertson and Lucas.

KERRY, FILM ACTOR, SUED FOR DIVORCE

His Attorney Ordered to Deny Charges of Cruelty Made by Wife

Filing of a divorce action against Norman Kerry, screen actor, who is known in private life as Norman Kaiser, was announced yesterday when Kerry's attorney, Michael A. P. Narlian, was instructed to prepare an answer denying Mrs. Kaiser's charges.

The suit was filed last month, but because of attachments to the defendant's property it could not be made public until the defendant was served with a complaint and summons, according to Milton Cohen, Mrs. Kaiser's attorney.

In her complaint, Mrs. Kaiser asserts that her husband called her vile names, stayed away nights and was indifferent to her. She also says he nagged and insulted her and made such offensive remarks to her friends that they avoided her and refused to visit her in her home. Finally, the plaintiff asserts, her health became impaired.

The couple were married February 29, 1920, and separated November 11, 1928. Kerry is now in New York on a vaudeville tour, according to Attorney Narlian.

Ex-Policeman Convicted for Whisky Theft

J. J. Sullivan, former Los Angeles police officer, yesterday was convicted of stealing four cases of "Old Crow" whisky from the home of Henry Riggs, 1120 West Forty-ninth street on August 13, 1933, in a decision handed down by Superior Judge Doran.

A week ago Axtell Merritt, also a former Los Angeles police officer, and Sullivan's asserted partner, was acquitted on the same charge. Judge Doran took Sullivan's case under submission.

Daughters of Nile Shown Work of Shriners in Orthopedic Hospitals for Crippled Children

Reports on orthopedic work done in Shrine hospitals in various sections of the United States, and exhibition of a film especially prepared by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios at the request of Noble Allan H. Ratterree, Al Malakiah Temple, were features of the banquet given last night in the Sala de Oro of the Biltmore by the Daughters of the Nile.

The film showed the work being done for crippled children in different hospitals. E. Blight discussed the different phases of the work as the picture was shown. More than 10,000 crippled children have been treated, a nd helped, many of them restored to normal health, since the first Shrine hospital was founded in 1922.

As a part of their work, the Daughters of the Nile make clothing for the children, supply toys and furnish other luxuries that make the lives of the little patients happier. All necessities are furnished by the Shriners, Noble Blight said.

The morning was given to the hearing of committee reports and an adjournment was taken at noon for the luncheon at the Mary

ST. MONTE, May 29. (P)—In a match marked by several upsets, amateur golf stars of California started their quest today for the State championship. While the easy victory of John McHugh, defending title from San Francisco, was worthy of more than passing comment, a large share of the spotlight was focused on William Kynoch of Del Monte, a dark horse.

McHugh had no difficulty in defeating Winston Fuller of Los Angeles, 4-2, and in doing so he placed himself in line for a third title, having won the title in 1925 and 1926.

McHugh's opponent, De Witt, lost to Kynoch, 4-2.

Weiman Denies Quitting Michigan Staff

Yost Declares Californian Will Not Be Retained

Contract Expires Before Football Season

Old Differences Said Cause of Latest Breach

ANN ARBOR (Mich.) May 29. (Exclusive)—Michigan was in search of a new head football coach today. The climax to the longest and bitterest internal struggle in athletic history here was reached when Fielding H. Yost, director of intercollegiate athletics, formally announced that he had resigned from the staff of the University of Michigan.

Yost, who has coached the Wolverines for the last three years, head coach and assistant athletic director, would not be needed next fall.

The campus was all agog today. Despite impending examinations, groups of students clustered about discussing the pros and cons of the announcement that has shaken Michigan athletic departments to their very foundations.

Student sentiment appeared about evenly divided, although a few of the more radically inclined were loud in their condemnation of Director Yost's decision.

The break began last fall after a series of incidents which culminated in a report that Yost and Weiman were preparing to end relations. After publicly announcing that he had returned to active duty, Yost was reported to have been seen in the company of Weiman.

ATHLETES IMPROVING STEADILY

Expect New Records When Junior Olympic Stars Gather for Los Angeles County Finals at Moore Field Saturday; Wykoff, Brix and Houser on Program

BY BRAVEN DYER

After what Vane Baker and Robert San Jose did last week to the high scores in the junior and senior divisions of the Junior Olympic Games, it appears that the boys are likely to leap right out of Moore Field Saturday when the Southern California finals are to be held.

And Baker and San Jose, leading their respective groups, are not the only youngsters who have been improving by leaps and bounds. Jerry Deal, Southern California champion in the junior division last year, has bettered his total each week and so has Walter Waters, who placed second to San Jose Saturday.

The steady improvement of the leading competitors is nothing short of remarkable. Take Vane Baker's case. Vane went into hiding during the early part of the season and little was heard of him to his progress. Finally the report came in that he had made 640 points. The following week he did 713, thereby astounding the critics who had kept an eagle eye on all competitors. Not content with this sensational performance, Baker went out and scored 740 points to win the Los Angeles county crown Saturday. That's an improvement of 100 points over the first recorded score of 640.

Deal's progress has been just as steady, but not quite so spectacular. Jerry started out by doing 610, then jumped to 611, did 631 to win the playground finals and then placed second to Baker last Saturday with 670.

Lisle Breslin of San Bernardino, who promises to give Baker and Deal plenty of competition Saturday, started below the 600 mark, jumped to 604, then 657 and wound up with 643 two weeks ago, he having virtually no opposition in any of his later meets.

Paul Lee, another playground star, dropped off last week after a sensational start during the early stages of competition. He did 464 in his opening meet, 519 in the next and then 601 in the playground finals. Last Saturday he went into a bad slump, registering 501 points.

Crowds Camp Outside Gates of Speedway Park

Experts Predict New Speed Marks to be Set

No Favorite as Drivers Go to Posts

INDIANAPOLIS (Ind.) May 29.—Speed enthusiasts from five surrounding States, more than 100,000 strong, congested the highways leading to Indianapolis tonight, waiting for the start of the 500-mile race classic. Lines at the entrance gates of Speedway Park were formed early this morning and these early birds will sleep or drowse in their places tonight to be first at the wicket when the park opens at daylight tomorrow.

In the vacant fields surrounding the park tents began dotting the landscape early this morning and by twilight the area resembled a huge armed camp of an invading army.

The seats in the mile of stands facing the stretch were practically exhausted Sunday and thousands of cars are waiting to rush the gates to try for preferred locations on the infield parking area. With fair weather speedway officials predict an overwhelming climax for the annual event on the occasion of the seventeenth annual classic which is the closing appearance of the little ninety-one-horsepower displacement machines in official contests.

In addition to the original twenty-one drivers awarded positions resulting from trial tests, thirteen more were placed in platoon for

Card Gridders Honored for Scholarship

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, May 29.—Last fall chosen all-American guard, today elected to Phi Beta Kappa, honorary scholarship fraternity, Stanford University's (Dynamite) Post has attained to the two highest honors which can come to a football athlete. The giant guard's ability on the gridiron has been demonstrated to thousands. But his excellence in engineering was only today quietly rewarded. Don Hamilton, of Pasadena, manager of the Stanford track team now invading the East, Robert Burn, of Los Angeles, water polo player, and Bob Loup, of Berkeley, two-miler, were others prominent in Stanford athletics to be elected to Phi Beta Kappa today.

OAKS CAPTURE SLUGFEST

Vergez Hits Two Homers as Acorns Win Out, 14-11; Stars Score Nine Runs in Last Two Frames

Oakland's big guns were booming overtime out at Wrigley Field yesterday and Hollywood's Stars suffered their second straight defeat at the hands of the invading Acorns. The final score was 14 to 11, which should indicate that the Shells also were not using their bats for decorative purposes.

However, the Stars didn't begin finding the range soon enough and they lost despite four and five-run rallies in the eighth and ninth innings. In fact, the Shells reminded one of a miller starting his sprint too late. They had plenty of slip left at the finish but didn't have time to use it.

Johnny Vergez, young Oakland third-sacker, led the Acorn attack by slamming out two home runs, one filled, and a single in four times at bat. Those homers of Johnny's brought his season's total to fourteen, one behind Slug Tolson, who is leading the league's home-run procession with fifteen.

Ernie Lombardi and Stan Schino also laced out circuit clouts for Oakland, while Mickey Heada represented Hollywood in the home-run department.

Buzz Wetzel, who lost a 1-to-0 lead in the first frame, was eliminated in the second frame.

MALCEWICZ MAT VICTOR

Stasiak Beaten in Straight Falls in Star Bout on Lou Daro's Wrestling Program

Joe Malcewicz, the barefoot wrestler from Utica, defeated Stanley Stasiak, giant Pole, in the main event of Lou Daro's Olympic mat program last night. The "two beef strong fella's" put on quite a show with Malcewicz winning in straight falls.

The first fall, a body slam, came after 1h. 4m. 52s. of the dirtiest wrestling ever seen in the Olympic program. Stasiak was the chief offender, using every trick known to the wrestling game.

Malcewicz's winning body slam had the Polish giant out for several minutes, and he was still dizzy when he returned to the ring. The Utica Panther made short work of him, clamping on a half-Nelson to take the second fall and the match in 54s.

Stasiak kept grunting and panting like a steam engine all the way.

RABBIT PUNCHES

A REAL SPEED VET

THERE is a lot of romance in the reappearance of Ralph De Palma at Indianapolis today. Although he failed to qualify a car the grizzled Italian alone of those who tried can point with pride to the fact that he raced in the first Hoosier speed classic back in 1911.

That was eighteen long years ago. De Palma was just a kid. He had barely attained his majority. But he had already launched on a career that has brought him greatness and popularity achieved by few race drivers.

In the halls of motor fame the names of Barney Oldfield, Jimmy Murphy and Ralph De Palma stand supreme. Oldfield retired many years ago. Jimmy Murphy, the lovable Irishman, was killed in an accident at the Syracuse track five years ago.

De Palma retired from active competition a few years ago, but the itch gets him over so often, and the Indianapolis classic was the impelling lure this time.

De Palma has driven in more Indianapolis races than any man in history. He was sixth with his Simplex in 1911—the first 500-mile feature. He won in 1915 with his Mercedes. He was sixth with a Packard in 1918, fifth with the Buick in 1920 and fourth with a Duesenberg in 1922. There were other races—and other cars—which failed to see him at the finish line.

He has come out of many a mix-up alive and with few scars to indicate he has followed the hazards of the race track for so many years.

INCIDENTALLY, this race will mark the passing of the single-seater cars and the tiny 1½ cubic centimeter motors in favor of two seats and motors four times as large.

Ten years ago the trend in motors was a decline in size until in 1923 the single-seaters with the tiny engines were introduced. Tommy Milton exhibited the first one on the old Beverly Hills track that year.

The powers that eliminated the mechanics' seat as a safety measure neglected to consider that they were also eliminating the greatest training school for future drivers.

Now they are going back to the system that produced the real greats of the track—Oldfield, De Palma, Murphy, Tommy Milton and others.

Since the single seater was invented no truly great driver has been developed. De Palma ruled for a couple of seasons, but he got his early training riding with his uncle, Ralph De Palma, back in the two-seater days.

HE'S 'HEPPY' AGAIN

IN SPITE of his ponderous left Mr. "Carnation Los" Doro of the "fastest growing city" trends lightly these days. The opposition that would reap some of gray which required him years to brew has been dimly noted by an order of the State Athletic Commission.

Said order is the inspiration of Commissioner James Woods, who rules the light and wrestling division by as much as his stinging of Baltimore hotels in the western sector.

The only difference is that Mr. Woods is paid for the latter chore, and receives nothing for keeping the light and wrestling head on an even keel—nothing but a pain in the neck sometimes from trying to straighten out superstitious situations.

At any rate Mr. Woods observes that inasmuch as Mr. Doro spent years in building wrestling into popularity here, and inasmuch as Mr. Doro does not show off more than two weeks because of a dearth of talent it would be unwise to encourage competition—in fact "unfair."

A NEAT EDICT

IN PURSUANCE of this line of thought Mr. Woods penned an order to Mr. Frank Moran, chief inspector of the State Athletic Commission, which runs as follows:

"Concerning the attached letter, it would be inadvisable and, as a matter of fact, unfair to grant any additional permits to hold wrestling matches at this time.

"Let Doro, who started promoting such matches several years ago, found it uphill work at first. The attendance was very slight. As a matter of fact he met with a loss, but displaying courage and persistence, he has brought the sport up to a point where it may reimburse him, but in a modest way for all the labor and attention he has put into it. Therefore, he is entitled to the consideration of the commission because he has been in harmony with us from the start and has cooperated thoroughly in every way with all our regulations.

"JAMES WOODS, Commissioner."

A GROWN-UP BABY

A LOT of folks didn't know Jimmy McLaughlin, the baby face kid of old, when he stepped into the ring to be introduced at the Calhoun-Mahan scrap the other night.

The reason was obvious. McLaughlin has changed like a kid growing out of short pants into long trousers. The baby look is almost gone. There is just a trace of the old winning twinkle in his eyes. The quirk of his lips is different.

And to make the change complete Jimmy now affects long hair. When he made his last local appearance he kept his hair short, a stubble pompadour. New York has put a new cast on the kid that got his start here five years ago.

Mind Controls Muscle in Golf

AT 400

BY SOL METZGER

The handicap of a poor start in any effort is so great that few ever overcome it. So it goes in golf.

That's why the start of the backswing and downswing are so important. Bobby Jones begins his downswing with a slight sway or glide of his body to the left. Immediately his straight left arm begins pulling the club down the right side.

His whole thought, however, is centered in hitting the ball on the intended line. Nothing else matters.

One believes, the more he slips into golf, the more he slips into golf. The mind controls the entire playing of a stroke. For example, Jones concentrates upon hitting the ball as he does start. And they land on it with all they have. But ask them how? Few can describe the motions any better than Jones can describe how you throw a baseball. Is this not proof that one's muscles respond automatically to one's thoughts?

You desire to do a certain thing in golf, you concentrate your mind upon doing it and it is done. That is the base of the star's game. Take the club. He has a water barrel to carry. Getting over it is his problem. To solve it he thinks only of the pond and in goes his ball. Mind over muscle with a few simple words, dammentally and you have your golf.

Bobby Jones is a consistent putter. Send stamped, addressed envelope to Sol Metzger, care of The Times, and request letter on putting.

WEIMAN DENIES QUITTING POST

coaching duties. Yost issued a statement the night before the Ohio Wesleyan game to the effect that not he, but Weiman, was head coach.

"NOT QUALIFIED"

Intimates of Yost explain his action by the fact that the "old man" felt Weiman not entirely qualified to lead the team from the standpoint of organization, and not actual coaching. Whatever the cause, Weiman openly admitted he was chagrined, and although nothing came of the matter, the differences of opinion persisted. Rumors that an irreparable breach had been reached Tuesday and that Weiman intended to resign were greeted with emphatic denials by the principals.

At a secret luncheon, Yost, Weiman and two other members of the athletic board of control, including Prof. William F. Fear, acting as chairman, were closed for about three hours. Weiman left and the others remained.

In his statement, Tad Weiman avers that he has no intention of voluntarily resigning and puts the issue squarely up to Yost and other Michigan authorities.

His statement follows: "I can only repeat what I already have said; namely, that I have not resigned from my position at Michigan.

"Since coming to Ann Arbor I have had just one objective—to serve Michigan in any way and every way I could. This I have done to the best of my ability at all times. This I intend to continue doing as long as there is work for me to do. I am for Michigan, first, last, and always.

"Again, I have not had, nor have I now the slightest intention of voluntarily severing my connection with my alma mater."

STILL DIRECTOR

Yost is still director and undoubtedly will continue as such. The official announcement likely will run to September, will not be renewed. The athletic board of control will agree with Yost in the meantime. Yost is not a quitter, and Weiman and Weiman have disagreed and that Yost figures his subordinate does not possess the requisites for being Michigan's head football mentor according to Yost ideas.

Yost figures that it is his function to assign coaches and other members of his athletic department as he sees fit. He also feels that with Weiman out of the picture his grid mentors will work better as a whole; that there will be more harmony.

FLEET BASEBALL LAURELS AT STAKE

Approximately 3000 officers, sailors and civilians from the battle fleet and harbor district are expected to be on hand at Fronto Field, San Pedro, this afternoon when the sailor baseball teams from the flagship California and the dreadnaught Tennessee cross bats for the diamond championship of the battleship division.

Date Set for Golf Entries

NEW YORK, May 29. (P)—H. H. Ramsey, chairman of the championship committee of the United States Golf Association, announced today that entries for the thirty-third competition for the amateur championship will close July 23.

The competition will be over the Pebble Beach course of the Del Monte Golf and Country Club, Del Monte, Cal., September 2-7, next.

In drawing for match play rounds after a hole of qualifying play, eighteen holes Monday, September 2, and the final eighteen the following day, the draw will be made from a ranking list to be prepared by the championship committee ranking the leading twenty players. The first cut names on such ranking list will be seeded.

Three well-known British amateurs will seek the American title. The entries of Cyril Tolley, former amateur champion of Great Britain, and E. F. Storey, runner-up in the British amateur championship in 1924, filed several weeks ago, were followed today by a communication from the Royal and Ancient Club of Great Britain entering Thomas A. Boun, London, who holds the French amateur title.

KENNEDY PICKED TO WIN HOLLYWOOD LEGION BOUT

Los Kennedy is favored to win the main event at the Hollywood American Legion Stadium tomorrow night. Kennedy fights Tiny Roubek, the big Indian, who, in size at least, is another Jess Willard. Kennedy is faster and a smarter fighter than Roubek, according to the experts, who have made him favorite.

If the Wilmington longshoreman fights like he did when he kayaked Chet Shandell he is likely to keep his winning streak. Kennedy doesn't fear Roubek's size. He figures that he will outstep the Indian, and when he gets the chance he will put over the sock that will win him the fight. Kennedy confidently expects to win by a knockout.

Another bid from the East has been received by Kennedy. He is wanted to appear in the heavyweight tournament being held in Chicago. Kennedy has a great many boosters who claim that he is going to be the best heavyweight developed on the Pacific Coast since Jack Dempsey was turned out.

The preliminaries at the stadium are likely to be better than the average. Paul Delaney will enter the ring a favorite to beat Carmen Tuzalino, the local Italian, and Johnny Godiner is rated a shade better than Harry Wallinder in the special. Two four-rounders will complete the card.

PHILS WIN

PHILADELPHIA, May 29. (P)—Phil Collins pitched the Phillies to their fourth successive victory over the Boston Braves this afternoon, 12-2. This was the first time in more than two years that the Phillies have won as many as four games in a row. Collins was superbly in the first inning when he walked Maranville and Richbourg hit a home run over the right-field wall.

Art Delaney, who started for Boston, was tagged for a pair of runs each in the second and third and was driven from the box in the fourth inning when six Phillies scored. Ed Brandt succeeded him but wasn't much better. Thompson hit a home run, the second of the season, in the seventh inning.

CARDS BEST

ST. LOUIS, May 29. (P)—Hal Heid and Sylvester Johnson, relief pitchers, hurled the St. Louis Cardinals to a double victory over the Cincinnati Reds today, 4 to 3 and 4 to 2, thus breaking a four-game losing streak.

Heid pitched seven innings in the first game without allowing a hit and then allowed a double and three singles in the eighth to account for the Reds' three runs. The Cards also held to four hits by Pete Donohue. Three of his safeties were by Chick Haley, including a triple and a home run, the latter with one on. Andy Elsh was stopped after hitting in sixteen consecutive games.

The number of hits was evenly divided again in the second game, with eight each, but Johnson kept home off him more steadily. Haley again hit for the circuit with one on. Douthitt and Purdy also got homers. The score:

TIGERS COP

DETROIT, May 29. (P)—Because Tiger hits were quoted at a higher value than those of the Browns today, the Bengals defeated St. Louis, 7 to 6, and enabled George Uhle to chalk up his ninth victory in as many starts this year.

The veteran from Cleveland was nicked for thirteen hits and often was in trouble, but with the aid of three double plays to quell the enemy and five doubles as the nucleus of twelve Detroit hits he was able to weather the storm.

Pete runs in the fifth inning, which chased Walter Stewart to the showers, gave the Tigers a lead which they held despite determined assaults by the Browns. Marty McManus, Tiger third baseman, rapped out a home run to open the fourth.

St. Louis' pitcher, Ed Brandt, was able to weather the storm.

CHISOX LOSE

CHICAGO, May 29. (P)—The Cleveland Indians conducted a powerful offensive against Tommy Thomas and Grady Adkins today and the result was an 11-to-1 defeat for the White Sox. Five runs and nine hits were notched against Thomas in the first three innings. Thomas hit the Indians' attack with two home runs into the left-field seats and a pair of triples, one to left and the other to right. Taverne also hit a home when two singles, a double and a triple.

Cleveland's pitcher, Grady Adkins, was able to weather the storm.

ROBINS SING

NEW YORK, May 29. (P)—The Robins evened their series with the Giants and at the same time snapped the clan McGraw's winning streak of six straight by defeating New York, 4 to 1, today in the second game of the series. The only home run was scored on Fred Lindstrom's homer in the fifth after Brooklyn had slugged Larry Benton for all of his markers.

Clare Doolley opposed Benton, winning his second defeat over the New York star within a week. Doolley allowed the Giants only three safeties. Brooklyn gained its ultimate margin by bunting five hits against Benton in the fifth. Dutch Henry and Jack Scott followed the sorrel-plot into the box. Harvey Hendrick, hard-hitting Brooklyn first baseman, hit safely in his twenty-fourth consecutive game. The score:

OAKS CAPTURE SLUGFEST

Verges Hits Two Home Runs to Lead Acorn Attack That Nets 14-11 Win Over Hollywood

verdict after sixteen innings the last time he faced Oakland, was anything but a puzzle to the invading Acorns. In fact Westel was lapped for eleven hits and nine runs during his four-inning stay on the mound. Dick McCabe stayed in the fifth and was replaced almost as rudely before the free-hitting struggle terminated.

McCabe staggered through eight innings on the mound for the Oaks, but was lifted at the start of ninth with the score favoring him, 14 to 4. A youthful southpaw named Young was sent in to subdue the Stars in their last of the final round but he had to be rescued by Kaich after Hollywood had driven across five runs.

The Oaks started piling up runs in the third, four runs coming from a single by Verges, a double by Kaich, a single by Young and a home run by Verges. Kaich then hit Verges, who threw the ball past Reese in an attempt for a forced out at second. Kaich then scored, putting him at third on the error. Burdett came home when Funk forced Reese. Lombardi got a home in the fourth, but it was in the fifth that the Acorns put on the real demonstration. Six successive hits, Schiano's home run on two up-caps, the string of safeties, gave the Oaks six runs and put them so far out in front that the cash customers promptly left all interest in the proceedings.

GOVERNOR STARTS RALLY

Governor tripped for a starter and scored when Reese singled over second. When Verges and Artlet cracked out his hits decided Westel had suffered enough punishment and called in McCabe. McCabe greeted McCabe with a single to right and then Schiano lined one over the left-field wall to give the Oaks six runs in the fifth. Singles by Frazier and Reese and Artlet's sacrifice fly gave the Acorns their twelfth run in the sixth frame.

The Stars jumped on McCabe for four runs in the eighth, which opened with Heath cracking one into the bleachers. After Hollings and Snyder had been retired, McCabe singled and Lee, Burdett and C. Carlyle rapped

MULLEN HALTS MANDELL BOUT

Revenue Agents Responsible as Tilt Held Up

Seek $44,000 Back Taxes on Previous Program

Promoter Hopes to Arrange Compromise Payment

CHICAGO, May 29. (P)—Difficulty with Federal revenue tax collectors today caused Promoter Jim Mullen to indefinitely postpone the ten-round match between Sammy Mandell, world's lightweight champion, and Louis "Kid" Kaplan, former featherweight title-holder, scheduled for Friday night.

The bout was set for Mill's Stadium as the opening of the Chicago outdoor season, but with no compromise involved.

Mullen decided on the postponement after two tax collectors, armed with distraint warrants, planted themselves in the box office to collect $44,000 said to be due the government in unpaid taxes.

Mullen said the dispute with the revenue department dates back seven years ago when he succeeded in securing a license to raise political funds. No tax was paid and none was collected, Mullen said, because he was under the impression the collector of Internal Revenue had waived the tax.

The amount now claimed by the government is the original tax, plus accumulation of penalties according to Mullen. Eighty per cent of the $44,000, Mullen said, was a penalty.

The promoter hopes to make a compromise settlement with the revenue collector. He only recently enlarged Mill's Stadium to a seating capacity of 22,500 with the intention of staging outdoor matches all summer and competing successfully against the Chicago Stadium, which seats 25,000.

MECHANIC WINS OVER SANGSTER

the national amateur will be played in September, in 35.

The figures were one under par, and included a six on the ninth. A par four on the ninth would have netted the long-driving Kynch an amazing 33, three under par.

Kynch earned his way into the second round with a score that included five birdies on the outgoing stretch. The decisive victory of McHugh was gained by a remarkable par game. Five times the tall San Franciscan dropped his approaches on the green for one putt, ranging from eight to twelve feet. He had a 37 going out, compared to Fuller's 35.

Other favorites in the championship list, who were unceremoniously bumped by short-handed golfers, were L. S. Brown, Bakersfield, while Hoffman was brushed aside by P. S. Bedford of Santa Barbara, 3-1.

BITTER BATTLE

Two brothers from Los Angeles, Fay and Lester Coleman, forgot their family connections long enough to put on one of the most bitterly contested matches of the day, despite the lopsided score. Fay won, 6-5, but only after he had sunk every putt at the insistence of his younger brother.

Jack Neville, four times winner of the State championship, advanced at the expense of Claire Griswold, San Francisco entrant, who succumbed, 3-2, before a slender game. The upsets and low scores came out of the upper bracket matches in which McHugh, Kynch, Edmonds, Neville and Hoffman figured. One default was noted in the select thirty-two, with Harold Thompson, Glendale, stepping up when Paul Ferry, Los Angeles, returned home on business.

Warner Edmonds, Jr., of San Diego, won the play off for low net in the State amateur championship, defeating Ralph Hoffman on the twenty-first hole. At the end of eighteen holes, both had net scores of 82-4-78 and 82-4-78. Hoffman posted 81-3-78. The nineteenth and twentieth holes were halved.

The results:

MISS GLADMAN TO SEEK WIGHTMAN CUP LAURELS

Miss Gladman "Midge" Gladman, University of Southern California sophomore, will leave here this morning at 9 o'clock for Forest Hills, where she will start training for an intensive summer campaign that will carry her through eleven tournaments. Last year Miss Gladman played in eleven tournaments, and won six singles and four doubles titles.

The Trojan co-ed intends to try out for the Wightman cup team, for the annual championship series between seven women players of the United States, and seven from England. Miss Gladman also will compete in the Beachhead International tournament to which the seven leading women players in the United States are annually invited, and the national championships at Forest Hills.

Yachts to Make First Stop at Johnson's Landing

And Al Christie's sloop Heather and H.W. Rohlf's yawl Paragon are ready to answer the call today when the South Coast California summer yachting season opens at Los Angeles Harbor. More than twenty schooners, yawls, ketches and sloops will face the starting gun off the Los Angeles light today when the Forty-five-Foot Sailing Association stages its four-day quadrone cruise. The Heather is picture above and the Paragon below. They are both shown fully dressed for the race.

The race is scheduled to start at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. The firing gun will be fired on the second, as has been the case for the past sixteen years. There will be $80,000 paid to the winner. It was announced by the officers at the final meeting of the club, that the prize money will be $50,000, with $10,000 added for the fastest time and $30,000 for the fastest laps.

The group of citizens which on Monday had met in Mayor Cryer's office to effect permanent organization of a citizens' committee to support the city's water and power enterprises yesterday afternoon adopted the report of its committee on organization. Joseph Scott, who presided, then appointed an executive committee of which he is an ex-officio member, to draw up a set of by-laws for the organization.

In Millapaugh Hall Auditorium. An assembly of all women students was called in order to select a uniform gymnasium suit replacing the old one now worn.

The assembly was held under the auspices of the Women's Physical Education Department and was directed by Evelyn Woodruff, vice-president of the Associated Students. The models were Lucy Guild, Honor Dietrick, Majorie Martin, Deborah Barrington and Betty Franks. The suit selected was the one worn by Lucy Guild.

Calling on their fellow-citizens to vote for the $17,500 power bond issue and the $23,500,000 water bond issue June 4, the Federation of State Societies yesterday endorsed the two bond issues.

"Under these circumstances we, as good citizens, are compelled to make this endorsement, and we call on all our fellow-citizens to vote for the $17,500,000 power bonds and the $23,500,000 water bonds to carry on in the splendid work," stated the endorsement.

Memorial Day Services to Be Impressive Event

Indianapolis Race Will Be Described Via Chain

BY DR. RALPH L. POWER
 Memorial Day services from the Arlington Amphitheater will be broadcast today for two hours, commencing at 10 a.m. Pacific time.
 President Hoover, standing beside the tomb of the Unknown Soldier, will be the principal speaker at the impressive event, conducted under the auspices of the Grand Army of the Republic.

The solemn ceremonies taking place in the celebrated bowl in Virginia will be heard by a nation-wide radio audience as the microphone picks up the addresses and music.
 The Columbia system will broadcast the event only to the Middle West, but the W.C. network will bring the program through to this coast. KFT will be the local station.

NOON PROGRAM
 Immediately following this same station will carry another chain of the four of the finish of America's fastest race, the Indianapolis 500-mile race on the Indianapolis Speedway.

Graham McNamee again will be at the microphone to broadcast the description of happenings at the race track. This, by the way, is the last year for the one-man car. In the future each entry will carry both a driver and a mechanic.

The description of the last thrilling laps of the annual 500-mile classic are due on the air at approximately 12 o'clock noon. Harvey S. Firestone is to act as referee.

SHRINE MUSIC
 KJH, the Don Lee station, will give its Memorial Day broadcast under the direction of Lindsey Mac-Harris from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m.

KTM at 8:30 o'clock will offer a continuity theme, "Mothers of the World," which will be read by Edward Lynn, who wrote the script.
 El Camino String Quartet will furnish the musical background, which will open and close with the "Star Spangled Banner."

KEVY, Beverly Hills, for an hour commencing at 9:30 p.m., will carry a program for Al Malikaah Shrine Temple with Shrine band and orchestra. Vocalists will be Lois Chambers, soprano, and J. Howard Johnson, tenor.

MUSIC STUDENTS TO PRESENT PROGRAM
 Students in the college of music,
 University of Southern California, will broadcast a program over station KEJH from 4 to 5 p.m. tomorrow under the direction of Horatio Cogswell, chairman of the voice department in the college of music. Miss Rose Daniels will give a short talk on the compositions of Heine, Ortel, Sibelius and Elting.
 Scandinavian composers, which will be illustrated by students and faculty of the various departments.

Four Felonies Laid to Suspect in Gun Battle
 Albert Lorain, alias Frank E.
 Webb, is charged with four felonies counts in a complaint issued against him by Dep. Dist. Atty. McEneaney yesterday as a result of a gun battle with officers on the 26th inst.

The officers assert they saw Lorain driving a stolen automobile through the business district and when they stopped him and attempted his arrest he declared yesterday by Hal Shields, general passenger agent for Western Air-Express, which is inaugurating the line.
 "Then those who have made definite reservations," he continued, are:
 Edward C. Yourell and Clara H.
 Ewing of the J. W. Robinson Company; Violet Tatum of J. J. Haggerty; Leon L. Riley of Bullock's; for Men; Ralph G. Hamer of De-mond's; and Lewis A. Orvatt and Max S. Rittenberg of Alexander & Orvatt.

The complaint charges Lorain with violation of the gun law, assault with intent to commit murder, grand theft, and driving an automobile without consent of the owner.

 Charging Cruelty, Seeks Half of Property

Making charges of cruelty against Alfred Allen Santell, known on the screen as Al Santell, his wife, Ruth Santell, filed a divorce suit against him yesterday demanding a division of $200,000 in community property.

Mrs. Santell, in her complaint, which was filed by Attorney P. J.
 Andreani, asserted that her husband continually beat her and called her vile names.

In April, 1928, she says, he told her to "get out and stay out" when he became enraged at something she said. Then he pushed her outdoors, she asserts, and called her the vilest names. When the policeman found her outside trying to get in and offered to arrest her he told her it was "all a mistake" and they left her go.

Besides demanding half of $200-000 community property, Mrs. San-tell wants $100,000 a month alimony and $5000 attorney's fees.

Successor to Getzoffs Now Facing Trial
 Because Samuel Klepperman, tal-lor of 2310 Brooklyn avenue, resident of a suit which he says he made from his shop on January 3, last, Ben Klein, proprietor of a tailor shop formerly owned by the Getzoffs at 609 South Spring street, will be tried by Superior Court on charges of receipt of stolen property.
 Municipal Judge McDill issued the order for trial after hearing testimony presented by Dep. Dist. Atty.
 McEneaney, because of several seasons Klepperman had bought the suit from him, and William H. Eccles, Klepperman's partner, said he purchased it from Klein for $82.50.

Driver Draws Jail Sentence
 Because Dr. Harry A. Bonoff, dentist, of 621 South Catalina street, refused to stop and give his name and show his operator's card after a minor automobile collision, he must spend ten days in jail.
 The sentence was imposed by Municipal Judge McDill yesterday after a hearing at 514 West Twenty-first street, testified that Bonoff's car crumpled a fender of their machine at Western avenue and Monument place. The following Bonoff, who attempted to escape, and when he stopped Mrs.
 DeWitt tried to get information from him, she declared yesterday.
 The dentist started his car and testified, and finally escaped after being pursued by her husband and herself for twenty miles after Los Angeles streets. He was arrested by police officers two days later at 969
 South Crenshaw boulevard.

Richard Dix to Be R-K-O. Star
 Universal to Remake "The Storm" as Dialogue Film;
 Kay Johnson Signs Long Contract With M.G.M.;
 Virginia Corbin to Be With Colleen Moore

BY GRACE KINGSLEY
 Thrilling, indeed, is the news which reaches us from R-K-O. of Scials, and from the actor himself, to the effect that Richard Dix is to become an R-K-O. star.
 We have been so used to thinking of Dix as being with Paramount, with whom he has been associated during the past six or seven years, that it is hard to think of him as being anywhere else.

However, Dix's new affiliation will not be as new in some respects as it seems at first glance, inasmuch as during the earlier years of his Paramount association, the star and William Le Baron, formerly associate producer for Paramount, but now with R-K-O., were close friends.

It is Le Baron, indeed, who has just signed Dix for R-K-O. on a long-term contract. Both are now in New York.

It is said that Dix always felt that he did his best work when in association with Le Baron, since they always discussed the stories they were working on together. Dix feels that Le Baron is an inspiration to him in his work.

Dix has one more picture to make for Paramount before he can take up his new contract, however, and is expected back soon to begin work on it, unless Paramount concludes to make it in the East.

The actor himself is tremendously pleased with his new affiliation, according to a wire just received by us.

His first story for R-K-O. is to be a talking picture of a stage play called "I Love You," and is to be made in the East.

Dix is well fitted for talking pictures, because of several seasons spent on the stage, in stock and in New York productions.

 OLD STORY SPECIAL
 It is likely, now that the talkers are popular, that we shall see many an old film favorably retold.
 Such is to be the case with "The Storm," which was made by Universal in 1922 as a silent picture,
 when it established a new rental record that stood until the release of "The Hunchback of Notre Dame."

 Such is to be the case with "The Storm," which was made by Universal in 1922 as a silent picture,
 when it established a new rental
 record that stood until the release
 of "The Hunchback of Notre Dame."

Now "The Storm" is to have its dialogue, discarded when it went from the stage to the silence of pictures, and Universal expects to produce it as a special. Langdon McCormick wrote the play, which had a long run at the Broadway in New York, with Helen McKellar as the heroine.

Reginald Barker directed "The Storm" as a motion picture. The principal roles were played by House Peters, Virginia Vail and Matt Moore.

So far no cast or director has been chosen for the talking version, but it is to go into production within a month or two.

Kay Johnson Continues
 Kay Johnson is now to be added to the growing list of those stage players who have definitely left the boards behind them.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer yesterday announced the signing of Miss Johnson to a new long-term contract as the result of her work in Cecil B. De Mille's picture, "Dynamite."

De Mille has been high in his praise of Kay Johnson's vocal ability, and has said that she can do everything with her voice that Gloria Swanson can do with her face in the way of dramatic expression.

Miss Johnson was a featured player in New York successes before coming to Hollywood. Her first stage work being in "R.U.R." She was signed by De Mille after a performance of "The Driver's Cord," which Simeon Gest and his associates produced at the Figueroa Playhouse.

Color and Virginia
 Color photography, we are pleased to tell you, is to figure throughout Colleen Moore's next First National vehicle, "Foot lights and Poles." The brand of color photography will be Technicolor, John Mc-Cormack, announced yesterday.

And since Colleen's own beauty is to be recorded in color, the other scenes in the picture will be chosen for their ability to screen well in the new medium.

Who could be more charming to look at in a film than Virginia Corbin, with her golden hair and her lovely eyes? And Virginia it is who has just been signed for the principal supporting role with Colleen.

Miss Corbin has just returned from New York where she went to cultivate her speaking voice for talking roles on the screen. Although she recently completed a lead in a talking comedy, her appearance in "Footlights and Poles" will be her first in an important production.

STUDIO MURDER MYSTERY
Produced by Charles Kenyon; Early Premiere Promised
Los Angeles playgoers will serve as the jury to Felix Young's second play within a year, when "Top of the Hill" is offered in world premiere at the Mayan Theater June 27, next, the producer disclosed today.

Studio Story Depicted at Paramount
A murder, a mystery and the inner workings of a prominent motion picture studio will be the three elements of entertainment brought into play at the Paramount today, when "The Studio Murder Mystery" takes the screen.

COMPETITORS LAUD FILM
For the first time in screen history, dozens of film people who have nothing to gain financially, in glory or any other way, from their statements, come forward indorsing another producer's product. The product is "Alibi," the melodrama now crowding the United Artists' Theater daily, and included are Lillian Gish, Josef von Sternberg, William Wellman, Sid Grauman and Lewis Milestone.

Orpheum Will Offer Charles King on Stage
Temporarily deserting motion pictures, Charles King, the melody star of "Broadway Melody" and erstwhile favorite of New York musical comedies and revues, will return to the stage Sunday for a week's engagement headlining at the Orpheum Theater. Accompanied by Louis Alter, he will present a program of favorite songs.

Producers Plans Sending of Hits to Los Angeles
That David Belasco, a master of stagecraft, plans to send annually at least one original production to the Los Angeles theater bearing his name is indicated in a telegram received yesterday by Edward Belasco, the producer's brother, at the Belasco Theater here.

Silver Deplores Too Much Talk
Marcel Silver, revue director of the Fox Movietone Follies, now showing at the Criterion, is a firm believer in the future—as well as the undeniable present—of dialogue pictures. He is a pioneer in the talkie field, having started three years ago in New York with "Chico," Sale, Raquel Meller, Sir Harry Lauder and others.

SOCIETY

BY JUANA NEAL LEVY
Invitations are being issued by Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Irwin Heron for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Geraldine Jeanett Heron, to Ned Harrison Leavitt, the ceremony to take place at the Heron home, 2911 West Adams street, Tuesday evening, June 25, at 8:30 o'clock.

Invitations Issued

The marriage of Miss Maybelle Lucile Whalen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Whalen, to Richard Hara Hawkins will be solemnized in St. Vincent's Church, Figueroa street at West Adams street, Wednesday morning, June 5, at 10 o'clock. Invitations for the ceremony being issued by the parents of the bride-elect.

Evening Ceremony

Mr. Fred Weaver Egan of 2515 Seventh avenue is issuing cards of invitation for the wedding of his daughter, Miss Anna Sabine Egan, to Henry Clay Williams, son of T. H. Williams, the ceremony taking place in Wilshire Boulevard Congregational Church, Wednesday evening, June 12, at 8:30 o'clock, with Dr. Harper officiating.

Miss Egan has asked her sister-in-law, Mrs. Winan Tager, to assist as matron of honor. Miss Gladys Helm and Kathryn Beynon will be the bridesmaids, while a small niece, Corinne Anne Egan, will be flower girl.

Donald Williams is coming down from Oakland to serve his brother as best man and the ushers will include Winan Egan, Fred Turner, William Connolly and Mr. Decker.

Visiting Son
Among the charming visitors to the Southland this early summer is Mrs. James Stewart of San Francisco, who is the guest of her son, R. B. Stewart, at his home in the Amor Arms, 1750 Orchid avenue, Hollywood, for an indefinite period.

To Alaska

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan H. Downs of 2401 West Sixth street are leaving Saturday for an extended trip to Alaska, making a stop at Vancouver and stopping for a few days' fishing at Van Ness. They will sail from Vancouver June 13 and will be gone for a month.

For House Guest

Miss Mabel Cooper will entertain in honor of her house guest, Miss Abby Whiteside, a pianiste of New York City, next Sunday afternoon with an informal reception beginning at 3 o'clock at the home of the hostess, 1000 North Hill, Beverly Hills. Miss Cooper will be assisted in receiving the guests by her sister, Miss Lela Cooper, Mrs. Irene Brush, Mrs. Jessie Streeter and Miss Mary Stevens.

Bridge-Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Mervyn Clinch of 635 South Citrus avenue entertained Friday evening with a dinner and bridge party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. H. Grayson McKee of Los Angeles. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. McKee, Mr. and Mrs. W. Warren Minger, Mr. and Mrs. G. De Wolfe McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Scott, Miss Alice McCassey and Jack W. Culver.

Campus Notes

With only a few more days to wind up the social activities of fraternities and sororities at the University of Southern California before vacation time finds the Greek-letter members scattered until fall, initiation rites, installation, ceremonies, dances, breakfasts, luncheons and teas are scheduled daily on the campus.

Installation of new officers for next year was held recently by Phi Chi Theta, professional commerce society, for Miss Elizabeth Quinn, president; Miss Georgia Love, vice-president; Miss Marion Washington, recording secretary; Miss Marjorie Lord, corresponding secretary; Miss Nellie Sharp, treasurer, and Miss Suzanne Lamont, grand counselor.

Initiation of honor commerce students into Alpha Sigma Sigma national honorary fraternity, in the college of commerce, was held at the University Club last night following a formal dinner. Prof. J. Harry Tregoe was initiated as an honorary member and the student initiates were Vernon D. Boyson, Roy E. Maginnis, James C. McCormick, Coleman H. Bush, Raymond E. Pinski, Floyd W. Fischer, Jack Mathews, William Clark Prediger and Benjamin F. Tanner.

With guests of honor including President and Mrs. Rufus B. Von KleinSmid and Dr. Mary Sinclair Crawford, the traditional breakfast dance was held by co-eds in the Women's Residence Hall, 666 West Thirty-sixth street, Tuesday morning. Chaperones were Miss Nina Shriver, Miss Roberta Braddock, Mrs. Ella J. Massey, Dr. MacKillop and Dr. Kingsley.

For Bride-elect

Miss Mary Beulah Moler and Miss Martha Van Buskirk entertained with a charmingly arranged miscellaneous shower Saturday, in honor of Miss Vivian Tilden, whose recent engagement to Dwight Eiler was announced at a formal dinner at the Deauville Beach Club. The Misses Moler and Van Buskirk were assisted by Mrs. F. Van Buskirk, Mrs. P. G. Moler and Mrs. L. McKillop, sister of Miss Moler, who is visiting here from Toledo, O.

Miss Tilden has set June 14 as the date for her wedding. Many pre-wedding activities are being planned for the bride-elect by her friends. Miss Tilden is a member of Alpha Gamma Delta Sorority at the University of Southern California. Miss Mary B. Moler and Miss Martha Van Buskirk, sorority sisters, will assist Miss Tilden as bridesmaids.

Forty-eight guests were bidden and included sorority sisters and friends. Among the guests were Misses L. B. Tilden, F. Van Buskirk, P. G. Moler,

SHE WILL BECOME BRIDE SOON

Church Wedding Announced for June 9

Miss Katherine Megica

THE marriage of Miss Katherine Megica, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Megica of 728 West Forty-first drive, to Malcolm C. Robinson, Jr., will be solemnized Sunday, June 9, in St. Vincent's Church with Father Martin O'Malley officiating. Three hundred invitations have been issued and there will be a reception afterward. Miss Mary Megica will be maid of honor while Miss Virginia Robinson, Mary Spencer, Mary Bantovich and Anita Megica will be bridesmaids and little Marjorie Megica flower girl. Dewar Robinson will be best man and William Dewar, Harold Dunnigan, Ernest Brittain and George Megica ushers. After the wedding trip the couple will make their home at 243 South Benton way. Mr. Robinson attended the University of Southern California, and is a member of Sigma Tau Fraternity.

will carry from the experience a sense of failure. Let him find his own job and make his own arrangements. Activities such as these will keep your child so busy that time never will hang heavy on his hands.

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS

A Little Kerosene
When the windows are very soiled and particularly hopeless-looking, add a little kerosene to the water for washing. It will cut the dirt and clean them in very short order.

Summer Rugs
When you put down the grass rugs, either the new or cleaned old ones, give them a coat of shellac. It will give them a brand-new look if they are old and will keep the new look on the new rugs, besides keeping them clean much longer.

In An Emergency
The sewing machine will act as a bed table in an emergency. Roll a cloth to the bed and extend the cover or end over the bed like a table. It is splendid for the kiddies to amuse themselves when recuperating by painting or drawing on it.

A Thought for Others
Go over your magazines once a month and pass on yours instead of to someone who cannot afford to buy periodicals. Surely you know someone who would enjoy them.

CHEF WYMAN'S RECIPES

Every Tuesday and Friday at 2 o'clock Mrs. A. L. Wyman will conduct a free class and demonstration of good cooking in the lecture room of the Southwest Building, 130 South Broadway.

ORANGE CUP CUSTARD

Place the strained juice of six oranges in a saucepan, add half a cupful of sugar and one tablespoonful of lemon juice, bring to a boil, skim and stir until the sugar is dissolved, remove from the fire and cool; dissolve one tablespoonful of cornstarch in two cupfuls of milk, mix with the well-beaten yolks of five eggs, and stir into the orange syrup. Place in a double boiler and stir over the fire until thick but do not boil; strain into custard cups and set in the ice box to harden. Before serving sprinkle the top with grated chocolate.

VEAL AND OLIVE PIE

Line a deep baking dish with a good short crust, cut two pounds of raw lean veal into slices, make a forcemeat with two-thirds of a cupful of finely ground veal, one-half cupful of fine bread crumbs, three tablespoonfuls of chopped parsley, one teaspoonful of thyme, one-half teaspoonful of marjoram, one-half teaspoonful of grated lemon rind, a seasoning of salt and paprika, and one-fourth of a teaspoonful of mace, blend all together with two well-beaten eggs, place on each slice of veal a thin strip of bacon and then spread with a layer of the forcemeat, roll up the pieces of veal, tie, place the rolls in the pastry-lined dish and add small balls of the forcemeat if there has been no top layer. Add one and a half cupful of ripe olives, and pour over all a cupful of rich gravy, that has been mixed with one can of mushrooms, add one tablespoonful of lemon

YOUR BABY AND MINE

Mrs. Edwile will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children, stunted and self-stunted, and to give advice on the subject of child-rearing, diet, and feeding the child from 1 to 18 months. Mrs. Edwile is a registered nurse and has been in the nursing profession for 15 years. She is a member of the American Nurses' Association and has been a member of the same for 10 years. CAMPUS AT U.S.C. SCENE OF BATTLE

Prominent Students to Post on Last School Before "Lunch"

Class grade lists turn the University of Southern California campus into a scene of battle, a supposedly quiet campus yesterday morning. Last year's class of 1929, and the members of the senior class, opened the year by looking at the list of names of the students who had been elected to the various offices of the University of Southern California. The list of names was posted on the bulletin boards of the various schools, and the students began to look at the list of names. Culver City yesterday had a glimpse of the world's heaviest airship pilot, when S. W. Neighbors, executive vice-president of the recently launched Guatemala Air Service, took up in a trial flight the first of a fleet of ten planes soon to be in operation in the Central American can republic. With Victor A. G. don, president of the company, neffy flyer, who tips the scales 308 pounds, has been in Los Angeles for several weeks, awaiting completion by the Kinross Airplane Company of the No. 1 ship.

and took off from Culver City Airport. After a perfect landing, twenty minutes later, he stepped out of the plane to be recognized by observers at the field as Neighbors, gridiron star of University of Southern California two years ago.

company's transport pilots. A month later, they were in the air with the ship and on their way to Guatemala, by way of Tucson, Arizona and Tampico. Neighbors announced his company also purchased the giant Albatross, which will be flown to Guatemala June 15.

Vote for New Jail Called On for Econom approval of the bond issue for construction of a new city jail. This was the statement made yesterday by President Rufus B. Kleinsmid of the University of Southern California.

"The city jail on First street built thirty-five years ago, still is the same size; the population of Los Angeles has multiplied ten-times. Overcrowding, unsanitary conditions, lack of segregation of novices from old offenders, is inevitable. Rentals and other expenses cost the taxpayers $25,000 a year. Invaluable records, fingerprints and measurements are stored in the top floor. The building is a firetrap. Fire Chief Scott declares it one of the worst in Los Angeles. Economy would imply a "Yes" vote.

Cosmos Group Plans Barbecue

Mrs. Nellie B. Van Slingerland, chairman of the Cosmos Club's picnic committee, yesterday announced lamb barbecue in Plummer Park, 7405 Santa Monica Boulevard, from 2 to 12 p.m., June 22, next, for benefit of the clubhouse fund. Tom Morris is to be manager. Music will be by the Venice band and Herbert orchestras.

Mrs. Lella Atherton Irish, a president, is to preside at a table of celebrities. The West Hollywood

Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a table for club presidents, with E. Champion presiding. Bert Earle Morse, prize orator, is scheduled to act as chief Barker for attractions. Greek shepherds are to barbecue the lamb, the balance to be served from 5 to 7 p.m. while other foods will be served throughout the affair.

Two bids on leasing the harbor department's marine ways at Wilmington were opened yesterday by the Harbor Commission and referred to the general manager. Harbor Boat-building Company $1800 a year and Park & Kibele $2400 a year, each for five years.
